DAILY EDITION.

MONDAY, JULY 15

A PRINCELY WELCOME TO THE PREMIER.

Sir Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, arrives today on his first visit to Prince Rupert since he was honored with knighthood by the King. There are people who practice the pronunciation of "Sir Richard" continually in conversation with their friends, seemingly trying to find the most impressive way of mouthing the "Sir," and there are others more apt to remember the premier than the knight. These others are alike in Liberal or Conservative ranks. Opposed in politics, they have nevertheless a common aim and a great one. They are men big enough to respect each other while they differ, and to pay due honor to the Premier of the Province, which is their pride for the credit of Prince Rupert, their city. Because there is a predominance of such men in Prince Rupert, Prince Rupert's welcome to Premier Sir Richard McBride today is a princely one in which the whole community willingly shares.

PORCHER ISLAND'S LITTLE PRESENT.

Once when Victoria was queen there was a great open air reception given in her honor, at which she received from the tiny daughter of an earl a bouquet of exotics from the noble lord's conservatories. Later, as the royal carriage was being driven homeward, it is said that a little village girl, daughter of a market gardener, managed to attract the gracious Queen's attention with a handful of cottage garden flowers. Today, while Prince Rupert does all honor to the Premier, Porcher Island shyly presents him with a basket of its own grown strawberries, dew wet, and with the delicate flavor of the northern garden. Sir Richard is not royal, and some may think there is no parallel between Premier's attention and Queen's. Yet Premier McBride represents the government at Victoria, the city named after the great Queen, and the Premier's Victoria, in the provincial sense, can do much for Porcher Island, coming market garden district of Prince Rupert.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Fighting Prejudice.—It is the grand mission of the Liberal party to fight against prejudice; and not even a careless word should be said to obscure that magnificent purpose.—Toronto Star.

Hard on Boat Owners.—Work on the dry dock piling, etc., proceeds apace. Everybody in Prince Rupert wants it to proceed, but is it strictly necessary for the contractor doing the work to lay his booms of piles right across the mouth of Hays Creek so that private boats can get neither out nor in? The creek will be shut up for good and all against boats soon enough in all conscience. Might not the boat owners of that district be allowed the convenience of it for this last season at least?

Fine Phrase Once, but Overworked.—A Toronto visitor to Regina is reported as saying that the cyclone there was "just like hell let loose." It is a pity Canadians are copying the absurd American habit of extravagant profanity. In this case the phrase is an absurdity. The cyclone brought with it a great storm of rain, something that "the pit" is supposed to be distinctly short of.—Toronto Globe.

Reception to Sir Richard McBride

The public are cordially invited to attend the reception to the Premier of the Province, Hon. Sir Richard McBride, K. C. M. G., and party on arrival at the Government wharf.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting to be addressed by Sir Richard McBride and Hon. W. J. Bowser, K. C. will be held in the Westholme Theatre at 8 p. m., Monday evening.

All are invited to be present.
Seats will be reserved for ladies at Premier McBride's reception at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

swings its doors open to even greater bargains than ever. We are more than pleased with our half day's business today. As predicted, we didn't lose anything by the Premier's coming to town. It has put a little ginger into the faint hearted ones, for they know now that they have a town here that's worth while.

It's the same way with this sale. After investigating and finding everything as represented (Bargains—Real Bargains—galore), they come back again.

SETTLERS POUR
STEADILY INTO
GRAHAM ISLE

By the last boat to Masset there left this port a party of fourteen settlers, the advance guard of a regular army of some seventy Adventists who are coming to take up large allotments of land there secured through a land firm of Vancouver. The Rev. Mr. Watson, one of their past pioneers, is already on the island. It is the intention of the newcomers to establish their own saw mill and to run a boat building plant on Masset Inlet. They are all thrifty, hard working settlers who will do the country good. William Helm, a practical farmer, representing a large number of Germans who intend settling on the islands under the colonization scheme of Archbishop McNeil, is proceeding at present to look over the land and select a suitable location. The first party of incomers will arrive this fall.

Success at Last

"I made all kinds of excuses to get off to see them play ball this afternoon."
"Wouldn't any of them work?"
"Yes. Finally I touched the boss's heart, by telling him I wanted to go to the ball game."

You Do Not Know

Where to Invest?

Let us tell you. There should be no difficulty about a matter of this kind if you take the trouble to exercise a little common sense. Here are the towns which have almost ceased to beat, would you not like to put your money into a place where there is life and hope?

Well! Why Don't

You Try the West?

We suggest the west, because the west spells Progress! Here are the cities of the future, where hamlets existed a few years ago. Here are the towns which are now the centers of the west, where the towns which were once the centers of the west are now the centers of the west. Here is Alberni, the future Liverpool of Canada.

A Seaport Town

of no Small Renown

So situated at the head of Alberni Canal on the west coast of Vancouver Island, is importance as a seaport town cannot be doubted, or too strongly emphasized. The canal opens itself out into the Pacific Ocean, after its land locked course from Alberni, extending for a distance of 24 miles. Its water is of great depth, permitting of safe navigation to the largest vessels plying the west coast, being only three miles in width. An investment in a place possessed of such enviable features

Must Surely be

One of the Best!

Yes! Without a shadow of a doubt it is one of the best! Don't be asleep to these great chances, which do not come too often. Remember, Alberni is at present served by one great transcontinental railway system, the Canadian Pacific Railway, and by the end of the year the Canadian Northern will have completed its track into Alberni. Then will come the dredging of Seymour Narrows, connecting the island with the mainland.

Mail and passenger routes from the coast and other routes via the Panama Canal, after its land locked course from Alberni, and transported by rail to Vancouver, saving from eight to twenty-four hours to the present route.

ALBERNI therefore is where you should invest.

Lots can be bought for $150, inside the town limits. Easy terms, 10% cash, 5% per month.

Test it for yourself. Buy a lot today and help to develop the west.
