FIRST SOCCER TEAM FORMED

REGIMENT AT MEETING LAST NIGHT DECIDED TO PUT AGGREGATION ON SENIOR LEAGUE FIELD

The first football team in the field for the forthcoming season's activities is from the First Battalion, North B.C. Regiment. Decision to form a team was reached at a meeting of the regiment last night presided over by Capt. J. S. Wilson in the absence of Col. J. W. Nicholls officer commanding. The meeting was well attended and considerable enthusiasm was displayed. An organizing committee consisting of Capt. Wilson Quartermaster Sergenat M. M. Lamb and Company Sergeant Major A. Murray was appointed and another meeting will be held in the near future to complete details for the aggregation which will be entered in the Senior League.

Sixteen players in the Senior League last year are available to the regiment.

SPORT CHAT

With the Maple Leafs-Anyox basketball series delayed for another two weeks, both teams will have to continue practice until the championship is decided. It is not easy to maintain interest when the regular league schedules are completed in both towns, but it is hoped that plenty of time will now be given for the local association to complete arrangements as the expenses of the contest have to be guaranteed by them. Anyox seemed to be a little slow in notifying the local team that they intended to challenge for the Milburn cup and, up to the time of the return of the Maple Leafs from Smithers, it was not known definitely that Anyox planned to come down. However, now that it is decided to have the series, there should be an early agreement on the dates for the games which should draw large crowds although a little late in the season.

The brilliant careers of Suzanne Lenglen and Helen Wills have stimulated the appetite of Riviera tennis crowds for women players of their calibre and every ambitions manager of tennis tournaments there feels the need of personalities. Betty Nuthall, 16-year-old, English girls' champion, is the hope of the Riviera tennis promoters at present. Her quick rise from the child wonderhood class to the position of serious opponent of crack-players at the Cannes tournaments bears out what enthusiastic critics have said of her from the first. When she recently defeated Mrs. Anthony Corbiere, of Boston, 6-0, 6-4, the managers sat up and were hopeful. Mrs. Corbiere's remarkable steady and brainy play made her a dangerous opponent for the best players at Cannes. Betty's smashing drive although not backed up as yet by uniformly steady game, will bring her in among the first eight at Wimbledon this year, critics say, since seeing her Riviera play. Many of them consider her development more remarkable than was Joan Fry's at the relative stage of her career.

Dates for the Spring racing meets of the Prairies Thoroughbred Breeders and Racing Association have been announced, the season to open as usual at Calgary, where two meets will be held, at Victoria Park from May 21 to May 28, and at Chinook Park from June 1 to June 8. Winnipeg racing opens at Polo Park on Saturday, June 18, continuing for seven days. The opening day will see the running of the big western Canada Handicap with a purse of $2,500 added, the race to be over the mile route and only open to Western Canadian breds. Other feature events are the Grain Exchange Handicap, the Royal Alexandra Handicap, the President's Handicap, the Free Press Handicap, the Wheat Pool Handicap, and the Speed Handicap on the closing day, June 25. At the Whittier Park meet, opening June 27, and the other major events of the spring season, the Speer's Handicap for three year olds and up with $2,500 added money, will be run that day over a mile and a sixteenth. Other feature events here are the Fort Garry Handicap, the President's Handicap, the Tribune Handicap, the Dominion Day Handicap, the St. Boniface Handicap, and the Stockyards Handicap on the closing day July 4. The purses will be $700 except in the feature races where it will run to $800 and $1,000. The new rule passed on last year goes into effect this year, and all horses racing at meets under the jurisdiction of the Association must be registered with the Canadian National Live Stock Records at Ottawa, or the Jockey Club, New York.

ANNUAL SPRING SALE BY LADIES OF UNITED CHURCH IS ON TODAY

The annual spring sale of the Ladies' Aid of First United Church is being held this afternoon in the church parlors, having been opened at 3 o'clock by Rev. G. G. Hacker. In the hall, which is adorned with seasonal decorations, are many tempting articles of ornament and use in addition to the ever popular tea tables. A further attraction is the presence of the ladies' orchestra under the direction of Mrs. G. A. Bryant.

The following ladies are in charge:

Tea room—Mrs. W. B. Cornish, Mrs. Frank Vickers, Mrs. Olof Hanson and Mrs. W. T. Kergin.

Fancy work—Mrs. D. Santerbane, Mrs. T. J. Shenton and Mrs. W. W. C. O'Neill.

Plain sewing—Mrs. J. Krikevsky, Mrs. G. M. Hunt and Mrs. M. Thomas.

Candy—Mrs. G. V. Wilkinson and Mrs. G. W. Kerr.

Home cooking—Mrs. W. A. Matheson and Mrs. C. J. Stevens.

Cashier—Miss Isabel Haddock.

MRS. JACK MUNRO GIVEN SURPRISE

Happy Event on Saturday Evening at Westview Home in Honor of Popular Hostess

Mrs. John Munro, 1463 Second Ave. Westview, was the surprised hostess of a group of well-wishing friends on Saturday night which gathered to honor her birthday. Whist, singing, recitations and dancing were the order of the evening and a happy occurrence was the presentation to Mrs. Munro by Mrs. S. V. Cox, on behalf of the company assembled, of a beautiful silver cake plate. Prize winners at cards were Miss Jean Martin, Miss Lizzie Jones, George Boulter and Jack Munro. There were solos by Mrs. J. R. Murray and J. Boulter and recitations by Mrs. Leek and Miss Jones.

The company included Mr. and Mrs. Vic Houston, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boulter, George Boulter, Miss Irene Boulter, W. F. Cameron, Mr. McRae, Mrs. Leek, Mrs. Cox, Miss Jones, Miss Martin, Duncan Munro, Mrs. J. R. Murray and Mr. Patterson.

BOOMING SMITH FOR PRESIDENT

MANAGERS SEEK OPEN MINDEDNESS AT 1928 DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION—McADOO, REED AND DONAHEY ALSO IN RUNNING

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 5.—Reports of much activity in behalf of Governor Al Smith of New York intended to aid the movement to nominate him for president on the Democratic ticket, are reaching Washington from various directions.

These reports, which are well-authenticated, leave no doubt that a real campaign is being carried on for Smith in many states. Some talk has been heard that the Smith managers were not awake and were letting things drift on the theory that it was too early to begin seeking delegates. But the fact appears to be they are making what is generally called a "gumshoe" campaign in both South and West and that they are already getting some results.

While in states which are certain to land in the Smith column there will be open fighting in his behalf and delegates will be openly sought for him, another sort of a movement is being made in states where there is strong opposition. There, the strategy will be to secure as much second choice support as possible. On the success of this effort to get second choice delegates, the nomination of Smith apparently depends.

What has occurred recently in North Carolina is illuminating. There, the program which is being carried out is repeal of the presidential preference primary law. That program, which is assured of success, will be followed by the securing of delegates to the Democratic National Convention through the convention method and the friends of Smith are expected to see to it that the delegates will be not unfriendly to Smith and will be disposed to support him after the preliminary balloting at the National Convention provided he shows the strength his lieutenants anticipate.

PLAN OF LEADERS

In brief, the plan of the Smith leaders is to have men put on delegations in the South and West who will be open-minded at least and not hopelessly antagonistic to the New York governor.

What wrecked the hopes of Smith in the 1924 convention at New York was the fact that the delegations from a large number of states were made up either wholly or largely of men or women who were prepared to fight the nomination of Smith to the last ditch. Their minds were closed. They were impervious to appeals. Wisely, therefore, the Smith managers are seeking delegates who, if not openly friendly to Smith, are willing to support any man of whom it can be demonstrated that he is a probable winner at the polls. The Smith leaders think they can make a good argument on the proposition that if nominated he can carry New York, a large share of the East, the South and some scattered states.

It is true, more or less is said to the effect that because of the religious issue and the wet and dry issue, Smith cannot carry the South; that is, that he will lose a number of southern states. But experienced politicians here take such talk with a grain of salt. They point out that Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, and some other Smith men have been doing missionary work in the South and have made headway. As for the West, it is recalled that because of Smith's influence, the New York Democrats in Congress supported the McNary-Haugen bill. That fact undoubtedly will gain Smith some second choice delegates in the West and it will give him a good many farmer votes if he is nominated.

OTHER POSSIBILITIES

The McAdoo candidacy for the Democratic nomination, the candidacy of Senator "Jim" Reed of Missouri, the aspirations of Governor Vic Donahey of Ohio—none of these can be overlooked in considering the Democratic situation. Moreover, there is serious talk among many Democrats of nominating a Progressive Republican, such as Senator Morris of Nebraska. The fact remains that right at this time, the chief organized campaign on the Democratic side is being carried on by the Smith lieutenants.

AN EXPLANATION

Editor, Daily News.

In the Daily News of March 16, appeared an article about the Oona River school published by me.

The statements made were without foundation.

I hereby wish to make the public understand that this statement was not made with the intentions to throw reflections upon this school or district, but through some unfortunate misunderstanding on my part.

The inspector's reports shows this school to be one of the best in his inspectorate.
