Howe wins Hart trophy for fifth time

Doubles points of Chicago's Hull

MONTREAL (CP)—Gordie Howe, the big slope-shouldered veteran who makes patrolling a right wing in the National Hockey League look easy, has won the Hart Trophy as the league's most valuable player for a record fifth time, it was announced today.

The award carries $1,000.

Howe, Detroit Red Wings veteran, polled 118 points out of a possible 180, more than twice as many as runner-up Bobby Hull of Chicago. Hull, the NHL scoring champion for 1959-60, received 55 points.

Hull's Chicago Black Hawks teammate, all-star goalkeeper Glenn Hall, finished third in the voting with 44 points.

Other players and their points: Jean Beliveau, Canadiens, 28; Bert Olmstead, Toronto, 27; Bronco Horvath, Boston, 20; Terry Sawchuk, Detroit, 7; Doug Harvey, Canadiens, 7; Allan Stanley, Toronto, 4; Andy Bathgate, Rangers, 3; Henri Richard, Canadiens, 3; Bob Pulford, Toronto, 3; Bernie Geoffrion, Canadiens 3.

LED ALL YEAR

Howe polled the same number of points for both halves. Hull had 31 points for the first half and 24 for the second while Glenn Hall received his 44 points in the second half of the balloting.

The first half consisted of games up to and including those of Dec. 31, 1959, and the second half included games from Jan. 1 to March 20, 1960.

Points were awarded on the basis of five for a first choice three for a second and one for a third. Judges were from all six NHL cities.

Howe and Hull topped all-star voting with 172 points each.

Howe previously won the Hart Trophy in 1951-52, 1952-53, 1956-57 and 1957-58. Eddie Shore claimed the award four times and Howie Morenz three times.

The 32-year-old Howe has just completed fourteen NHL seasons. He has been selected as the right wing on the first all-star team seven times and as a member of the second team four times.

This season he had 28 goals and 45 assists for 73 points. During regular scheduled play, Howe has scored a total of 446 goals and 977 points.
