9 In Memoriam

In loving memory of a dear brother, brother-in-law, and uncle, Kenneth Carl Johnson, who passed away February 23, 1956.
Softly the leaves of memory fall,
Gently we gather and treasure them all
As each day passes loneliness grows,
We miss you more than anyone knows.
Silent thoughts and memories dear,
Treasured still with love sincere.
Ever remembered, ever loved. Your sister Ruth, David and Kevin, Abel, Doraleen and little Kenneth Johnson, Calgary, Alberta. (39)

JOHNSON — In treasured memory of a dear son, Kenneth Carl Johnson, who passed away February 23, 1956
You left us a beautiful memory
A sorrow too great to be told.
To us who loved you and lost you
The memory will never grow old.
We look back with love and tenderness
Upon the road you trod.
We bless each hour we spent with you
And leave the rest to God.
Always remembered and sadly missed. Your loving Mother, Dad, brothers Gary and Reid and Grandma Lindquist, of Vancouver. (37)

TWO FIREMEN in foreground pour water into burning Exchange block building in desperate attempt at quell outburn fire which burned from approximately 2:45 p.m. yesterday until 8 o'clock at night. More than $75,000 worth of damage was inflicted on the Exchange block and the building next door which housed Gordon and Anderson fire sale and Empire Baths and Barber shop and home, up stairs, of well-known city barber Ara Tait. Firemen are shown getting hose into Tait apartment as fire spread, cause more than $4,000 damage in second building.

While attending the blaze two false alarms were received, one at Imperial Oil and another at Fourth Avenue East and Ebert Street.

The premises of Star Style Wear in the Collart building was empty as the proprietors moved their stock and re-opened across the street last week.

A small dog was taken from the Exchange block by chief Becker and was found to be unconscious but got up and walked away minutes later.

A man who was passing by the building shortly before the fire broke out said he heard a loud explosion which sounded like a furnace blowing up.

Thousands of gallons of water were poured into the building but dense smoke continued to pour out, making it awkward for firemen to enter the furniture.

Damage to stock and furniture at Gordon and Anderson furniture has not yet been assessed.

Approximate of the damage to all stores and apartments including furniture are now being carried out.

Earlier this winter, fire took a toll of one life and approximately $250,000 worth of property damage.

On November 29 and 30 fire destroyed the Palmer apartments and an adjacent rooming house for a total of $50,000 damage. Forty persons were left homeless.

A week later on December 5, fire destroyed a rooming house on First Avenue West leaving three persons without homes and causing an estimated $8,000 worth of damage.

A total of $170,000 damage was caused when the three-story Gordon and Anderson hardware store on Third Avenue West burned on December 9.

Five days ago on February 17, an apartment blaze took the life of 27-year-old beer parlor waitress [illegible] caused about $5,000 in damage. Mr. Little's wife Ann and their five-year old son Harry escaped the fire unharmed.
