Cardinals all smiles after first victory

The world champion Los Angeles Dodgers are all alone in first place after their first run-in with San Francisco Giants, but the guys with the smiles in the National League are the St. Louis Cardinals.

They finally won one.

The Cards, after winning 16 exhibition games against six losses, discovered all sorts of ways to lose in their first five regular season games. But Tuesday night, with injured Joe Cunningham back and Stan Musial slugging a two-run double, the Cards broke through for a 5-2 victory over Chicago Cubs.

	W	L	Pct.	GBL
Los Angeles	5	1	.833	-
Milwaukee	3	1	.750	1
San Francisco	4	2	.667	1
Pittsburgh	3	3	.500	2
Cincinnati	2	3	.400	2½
Philadelphia	2	3	.400	2½
Chicago	2	4	.333	3
St. Louis	1	5	.167	4

The Dodgers toppled the Giants out of a share of the lead with a 4-0 decision at San Francisco as Johnny Podres and Ed Roebuck combined for a five-hit shutout.

Philadelphia Phillies won their first under new manager Gene Mauch, beating Pittsburgh 4-3 behind Jim Owen's three-hitter.

Southpaw Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell struck out 10 and gave up seven hits while becoming the Cards' first winner. He needed Lindy McDaniel's relief help in the ninth, but had a three-run lead after Bill White hit his first home run of the year in the eighth.

Wilmer also doubled home the Cards' first two runs, in the second. But it wasn't until the fifth that St. Louis drew ahead to stay. Cunningham, sidelined by a leg injury after playing in the season opener, was 2-for-4 and scored the run that broke a 2-2 tie on Musial's double off loser Seth Morehead (0-1).

The Cubs had tied it in the third on Ernie Banks' third home run—a shot that gave the slugging shortstop a tie with Gabby Hartnett as the Cubs' all-time home run champ with 231.

Los Angeles got the run it needed in the second on Carl Furillo's triple and a sacrifice fly by rookie Tommy Davis against Billy O'Dell (0-2), a loser in his first NL start. The Dodgers added three more in the ninth against Billy Loes and Stu Miller on John Roseboro's two-run triple and two of the Giants' five errors. Podres, gaining his first decision of the season, had a three-hitter for eight innings.

Owens, slapped with a $600 fine for playing too hard off the field during spring training, was all business in his first appearance for the Phils. An error, Dick Groat's single and Bob Skinner's home run gave the Bucs their three in the third. The only other hit Owens allowed was Bob Clemente's single in the sixth. The young righthander walked but two and struck out nine. The Phils chased loser Harvey Haddix in the third.

GIARDELLO, FULLMER CLASH

Middleweight title at stake tonight

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)—Joey Giardello, getting his first title shot in 12 years of campaigning, guns for the National Boxing Association's world middleweight championship tonight against rugged Gene Fullmer, defending his crown for the second time.

The 13,200-seat fieldhouse on the mountain-rimmed campus of Montana State College is nearly sold out for the 15-rounder.

The expected box office gate of more than $100,000 and television receipts of $100,000 guaranteed monetary success for Montana's first championship bout since heavyweights Jack Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons battled in a 1923 financial flop. That nearly bankrupted Shelby, Mont., 200 miles north of here.

The fight will be televised by ABC starting at 7 p.m. PST. Fullmer collects all the TV payoff and Giardello, veteran of 106 fights since 1948, pockets $25,000 plus $5,000 expenses.

Cowboys, ranchers and wheat farmers from hundreds of miles away flocked into this college and cow town of some 15,000 population. Special buses from Fargo, N.D., and Ogden, Utah, brought hundreds of fans.

Bozeman's accommodations bulged and the fight crowd spilled over into nearby towns such as Livingston, 26 miles to the east where Giardello, from Philadelphia, trained.

Fullmer, renowned for his superb physical condition, said "I figure Giardello will be coming out fast in the opening rounds, but I always go into the ring expecting trouble." The 28-year-old champion, from West Jordan, Utah, thinks the fight could go the distance.

Fullmer is a 13-to-5 favorite. He has a 51-4 record with 22 kayos and was knocked out only by Sugar Ray Robinson in 1957.

Giardello, ranked No. 7 by the NBA and No. 5 by Ring magazine said he is in his best shape in years.

Although this is his first 15-round bout, the 29-year-old ring warrior said "don't worry about Joey going the distance. I sparred more than 100 rounds in training. Fullmer's the guy that better be in shape."

Joey's record is 83-17-5, with one no-decision. He has knocked out 30 opponents and has been counted out three times.

Oil Kings set for east series

EDMONTON (CP)—Edmonton Oil Kings wrapped up the Western Canada Memorial Cup semi-finals Tuesday and prepared to leave today for the Dominion finals in Toronto—taking along three extra players.

The Oil Kings, of the Central Alberta League, defeated Brandon Wheat Kings 6-1 in the seventh and deciding game of their best-of-seven series.

Shortly after the victory coach Harry Allen announced he would take the Brandon captain, right wing Ed Ehrenverth, Brandon defenceman Dunc McCallum and Flin Flon Bomber centre Cliff Pennington to Toronto as added strength.

The Oil Kings were presented with the Abbott Cup, emblematic of Western Canadian junior hockey supremacy, in a short ceremony following the victory.

Oil Kings lost the first two games of the series in Brandon, then came back to Edmonton and took the next three straight before the Wheat Kings tied the series 3-3 Monday.

It is the fourth time an Edmonton team has made the Dominion finals since the series started in 1919. The Oil Kings of 1954 did it as did Edmonton Athletic Club teams in 1934 and 1939. The only Alberta team to win the Memorial Cup was the Calgary Canadians of 1926.

More than 6,700 fans saw Edmonton take a 3-1 first period lead Tuesday, raise the count to 5-1 during the second session, and score an unanswered goal in the final period.

The best-of-seven Dominion final will be played in Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens against either Brockville Canadians or St. Catharine's Teepees starting April 24. The Teepees lead the western final 3-1 with the fifth game scheduled tonight.

Jacks capture mixed 10-pin championships

Jacks were crowned champions of the Mixed Ten-Pin Bowling League Thursday as they edged Dominoes 2300 to 2224 in the finals.

The Jacks contingent combined their scores of 703, 707 and 710 to outscore the Dominoes crew who had scores of 703, 751, and 680.

Individual honors, however, were taken by Dominoe players. Don Hartwig rolled men's high single and triple of 220 and 550 while teammate Gailya Grimolfson took women's high single and three with her 168 and 426.

A banquet for the ten pinners has been set for Saturday, April 23 at 6:30 p.m. in the Rupert Hotel Banquet room.

TWO TEAMS UNDEFEATED

Inter-high bonspiel reaches "eights"

Two rinks have reached the "eights" of the A event in the third annual Inter-High School McCracken Bonspiel which entered its fourth day of play today.

The Bruce Mitchell rink and the Olsen rink of Terrace captured their third straight wins in the event and have yet to be defeated in the B event which is in its "sixteens".

Other games in both A and B events, however, have yet to be completed and until they reach the "eights" significant finalists cannot be determined.

Fans peeved

CLEVELAND (AP)—Out on St. Clair Avenue they hanged Frank Lane in effigy and laid out a likeness of Joe Gordon on a slab.

This was the way habituees of the Pointview Grill showed how they felt about the trade in which Lane, Cleveland Indians' general manager, dealt slugger Rocky Colavito to Detroit for Harvey Kuenn. Gordon backed Lane up on his decision to trade the popular Colavito.
