Yankees take over first place in AL

Edge Indians 3-2 as Terry hot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York Yankees, with unbeaten righthander Ralph Terry going all the way with a seven-hitter, beat Cleveland 3-2 in 11 innings Thursday night and climbed into first place in the American League race by .005 percentage points. The loss dropped the Indians into a second place tie with Detroit Tigers, who were whipped 10-1 by Boston.

Washington tied Baltimore for fourth place by beating the Orioles 5-2, the eight-place Chicago White Sox won their seventh in a row, 3-2 over Los Angeles Angels and Minnesota beat Kansas City 4-3.

The Yankees, winning 13 of their last 15, beat the Indians when pinch-hitter Bob Cerv walked, stole second and came in on a two-out single by pinch-hitter John Blanchard off losing relief ace Frank Funk (7-5). The Indians, losing two in a row for the first time in a month, blew a 1-0 lead behind starter Mudcat Grant, but tied it two-all in the ninth on a single by Johnny Romano.

Grant had blanked the Yankees on three hits until the seventh inning. Then Mickey Mantle led off with his 19th homer, Yogi Berra was safe on a two-base error by Tito Francona and Elston Howard brought him home with a single. Terry (5-0) walked just one and struck out eight for his third straight complete game and second victory over the Indians.

A grand slam homer by Vic Wertz capped a winning, five-run fifth inning for the Red Sox and beat Jim Bunning (5-6). Righthander Bill Monbouquette (6-6) was the winner. He allowed four hits and had the Tigers shut out until the ninth, when Rocky Colavito singled and scored on a double by Larry Osborne.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Righthander Joey Jay, overdue as a winner and figured expendable by Milwaukee Braves, is keeping things rosy for Cincinnati Reds in that leap-frog race for the National League lead.

Pal Joey, 25, who had only a 24-24 record for seven seasons with the Braves when he was swapped for shortstop Roy McMillan last winter, ended the Reds' losing skid at two games with a breezy, 8-1 victory — his eighth straight — over Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night. That kept the Reds in a second-place deadlock with the Giants, a half-game behind Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers began the day on top, fell to second when San Francisco whipped Milwaukee 6-3 in an afternoon game and slipped to third when the Reds won. But they then leap-frogged back on top by beating Chicago Cubs 6-3 in 12 innings on a three-run homer by Tommy Davis.

St. Louis Cardinals defeated Philadelphia Phillies 6-3.

The Reds put together a four-run first inning off loser Wilmer Mizell (4-5). Gene Freese and Wally Post each drove in three runs, with Freese doubling home three in the first. Post singled, doubled and homered in Cincinnati's 15-hit attack. Jay allowed eight hits.

Kitimat here for Sunday

Floyd Jessup, commissioner of the Northern British Columbia Baseball League said today that Kitimat's ball team will be here Sunday "as far as I know."

It had been rumored that Kitimat had folded and dropped out of the league but Jessop said that he thought they'd be here to play the scheduled double-header with Esquires at Roosevelt Park beginning at 1 p.m.

Jessop said he would phone Kitimat tonight to confirm the fact.

Also this weekend in the league, Belmonts will be at Hazelton for a double-header while Terrace will visit Smithers for a two-game series.

Many Savoy errors lead Wahls to victory

A come-from-behind effort, helped along by 21 opposition errors, led Wahls Boat Yard senior women's softball team to a 16-9 victory over Savoy Hotel at Gyro Park last night.

Savoy started off as if they were going to run away with the win as they outscored Wahls 5-2 in the first inning.

But Wahl's pitcher Carol White settled down after the first inning and allowed Savoy to score only four more runs. In posting the win she gave up only six hits, walked six and struck out two.

Wahls had a field day at the expense of losing pitcher Faye Terrion as they blasted her for 14 hits. She walked two and struck out none.

More than 400 fans watched as the boat crew tied the score 5-5 in the third and then went on an 11-run rally during the rest of the game to sew up the victory.

The barrage of errors by Savoy helped Wahls tally the 11 runs and record the victory.

The win gave Wahls a firmer hold on first place while the loss dropped Savoy into the league cellar. High School is in second place with a 4-4 record while Fashion holds third with a 3-4 record.

Wahl's second baseman Lynn Erickson topped the team's batting with four hits in five trips to the plate. Savoy catcher Carol Bryant led her team with two for four.

Newcomer leads U.S. Open

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — Bright newcomer pro, Bobby Brue of Milwaukee, held a one-stroke lead and was just about the only happy man in the 150-player field which plunged into the second round of the 61st U.S. Open golf championship today.

Former champion Tommy Bolt, who usually just gets angry at himself, rankled over a spectator's tongue-lashing which apparently caused him to fall into a second - place deadlock at even-par 70 with Bob Goalby, another ambitious pro.

All except three players were over par in a temper - testing round at windswept Oakland Hills Thursday. Today's second 18-hole skirmishing will reduce the field to the top 50 and ties for Saturday's closing double-round.

Brue, 26, former University of Miami golf captain playing in his second Open, tamed unruly Oakland Hills' par 35-35—70 course for the day's only sub-par round, 35-34—69.
