Wings down Canucks for eighth win

Howe, Johnson lead with pair of goals

By The Canadian Press

Detroit Red Wings are getting in shape for the 1960-61 National Hockey League season with plenty of hard work. They seem to thrive on it.

The Wings, who finished fourth in the 70-game regular schedule last season, Tuesday night zipped through their eighth exhibition game in eight nights. They picked up their eighth straight victory, overpowering Vancouver Canucks of the Western League 10-3 before 5,500 fans at Vancouver.

Toronto Maple Leafs shut out Sault Ste. Marie Thunderbirds of the Eastern Professional League 4-0 while Chicago Black Hawks were held to a 4-4 tie by Buffalo Bisons of the American League.

At Fort William, Boston Bruins grabbed a 3-0 lead in the first period, then coasted to a 5-1 triumph over the WHL Winnipeg Warriors.

The Wings were led by veteran right-winger Gordie Howe and Al Johnson, a draft pickup from the WHL Spokane Comets, with two goals apiece. Singles went to Norm Ullman, Gary Aldcorn, Warren Godfrey, Val Fonteyne, Brian Smith and Jerry Melnyk.

Orland Kurtenbach, Bruce Carmichael and Len Lunde, the latter on loan to Canucks from the Wings, scored for the losers.

IN EDMONTON TONIGHT

The Wings continue their rugged pace with an engagement tonight in Edmonton against the WHL Edmonton Flyers.

Credit for the Leaf win went mainly to forward Frank Mahovlich, who scored twice to break his own slump of seven scoreless games.

Thunderbirds outskated Leafs in the first period, but NHL power told the story later despite outstanding netminding by Dennis DeJordy.

Mahovlich scored twice within 14 seconds in the second period. Johnny Wilson and Allan Stanley got the other goals.

Goals by Bobby Hull, Elmer Vasko and Murray Balfour sent the Hawks ahead 3-0 in the first period at Welland, Ont. Billy Dea got one back for the Bisons in the middle frame. Al Arbour scored in the third for Chicago but Buffalo came back strongly with three goals.

In the Boston-Winnipeg skirmish things became rough at one point when Mike Kardash of Winnipeg and Leo Labine of Boston threw punches.

Johnny Bucyk scored twice for Boston. Doug Mohns, Labine and Orval Tessier added singles. Gord Redahl accounted for Winnipeg's goal.

The Bruins fired three goals against their former goaltender Harry Lumley, before he gave up the Winnipeg net chores to Ernie Wakely.

In Montreal, coach Toe Blake of Canadiens shuffled his roster with rookie forwards after regular centre Phil Goyette re-injured an ear in practice.

Blake sent Bob Rousseau to Hull-Ottawa Canadiens of the EPHL and said Cliff Pennington and Wayne Connelly will line up with the Habs in two games prior to Saturday night's all-star battle in Montreal.

Yanks record 11th straight victory while Pirates win 16-inning contest

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees may be undecided over his starting pitcher for the opening game of the world series a week from today, but he knows for sure that one-time relief ace Ryne Duren is ready.

The fast-balling right-hander making his first start in two years, Tuesday night tied a modern record by striking out the first five men he faced as the Yankees whipped Washington 5-1. It was the American League champs' 11th in a row.

Baltimore walloped Boston 17-3 and took a one-game lead over Chicago in their scrap for second place as Detroit beat the White Sox 2-0 behind Jim Bunning's three-hit pitching. Kansas City defeated Cleveland 5-4.

The Senators didn't get a hit until the fourth inning, when Reno Bertoia and Jim Lemon singled. Eli Grba (6-4) won it with three hitless innings. Bob Turley, considered by Stengel as a possible starter at Pittsburgh next Wednesday along with Art Ditmar and Whitey Ford, gave up one single in his two frames.

The Yankees, riding their longest streak since they won 11 in 1956, beat Don Lee (8-7) with two runs in the second on a double by Dale Long, a triple by Johnny Blanchard and an error. Bill Skowron then rapped his 26th home run as a pinch-hitter leading off a three-run eighth.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	W	L	Pct.	GBL
Pittsburgh	93	58	.616	-
Milwaukee	86	64	.573	6½
St. Louis	85	64	.571	7
Los Angeles	79	70	.530	13

Cincinnati	67	84	.444	26
Chicago	58	92	.387	34½
Philadelphia	56	94	.373	36½

Jim Gentile drove in five runs for the Orioles, who tagged 18 hits, including four homers, for their one-game scoring high this season. Skinny Brown (12-5) was the winner and Ike Delock (9-10), who beat the Birds with a three-hitter in his last start was the loser.

Bunning (11-14) allowed nothing but singles, two by Sherm Lollar, while pitching his fourth three-hitter, second over Chicago, and third shutout this season. Early Wynn (13-11) lost it on a two-out wild pitch in the sixth inning.

Jerry Lumpe was 4-for-4, belted a home run and drove in two runs for the As against loser Barry Latman (7-7). Ray Herbert (13-15) won it with 3⅓ innings of one-hit, shutout relief by rookie Dave Wickersham.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

The plot's beginning to perk up in the race for the National League batting title. There are just five days left, but here comes Willie.

While Norm Larker of Los Angeles and injured Dick Groat of Pittsburgh's champion Pirates are tied for the lead at .325, Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants has climbed to .322 in his shot for a second title.

Groat has been sidelined without a time at bat since breaking his wrist September 6. He has only three games left. Larker has five; Willie, four.

Groat, who expects to get back into the line-up against Milwaukee this weekend in a warm-up for the World Series opener at Pittsburgh a week from today, returned as a pinch-runner as the Pirates defeated Cincinnati 4-3 in 16 innings Tuesday night. It was the longest game of the year in the majors and ended the champions' losing streak at three.

Larker was 1-for-2 and picked up a point for the first-place tie with Groat as the Dodgers beat the St. Louis Cardinals and 21-game winner Ernie Broglio 5-1. Mays gained two points with a double and two singles in four trips, driving in the Giants' run in a 3-1 loss to the Chicago Cubs.

Milwaukee retained a half-game edge over St. Louis for second money in the standings despite a 5-3 defeat at Philadelphia.

THREE-RUN HOMER

Dick Stuart walloped a three-run homer in the first inning for the Pirates, then opened the 16th with a double off loser Cal McLish (4-14) as they beat the Reds on a follow-up single by Dick Schofield. It was the first hit in two trips for Schofield, who has batted .400 as a sub for Groat at shortstop.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Kansas City	56	94	.373	37

Fred Green (8-4) won it as the last of four Pirate pitchers who combined for 19 strikeouts, just two shy of the record for an extra-inning game.

Rookie Tommy Davis drove in four runs, three with his 10th homer, as the Dodgers clipped Broglio's winning streak at five. It was his eighth defeat. Roger Craig (8-3) was the winner, allowing five hits and striking out six. That gave the Los Angeles staff a total of 1,080, breaking the major league strikeout record the Dodgers set last season with 1,078.

Four unearned runs with two out in the eighth inning brought the Phils from behind against Milwaukee right-hander Joey Jay (9-8). Dick Farrell (11-16) was the winner in relief of Robin Roberts, who gave up a two-run homer by Del Crandall.

The Cubs and Giants each had six hits, but a two-run homer by Frank Thomas, his 21st, in the fourth inning off Billy O'Dell (8-13) was the difference. Don Cardwell (9-15) was the winning pitcher.

Dutchies back?

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP) — The Kitchener - Waterloo Dutchmen may jump back into senior hockey.

The Dutchies announced several weeks ago their withdrawal from Ontario Hockey Association senior play. Team officials met the arena commission Tuesday night in an effort to get ice time. If the team can get ice time, officials say the player situation is in shape for a team. It would probably play in a league with Welland, Galt, Oakville, Whitby and Belleville.

Canadian golf team in world championship

ARDMORE, Pa. (CP)—A four-man Canadian squad tees off with golfers from 31 other nations today in the second world amateur team championship.

And if Bob Wylie's 65 practice round Tuesday is any indication, the Canadians may put on a good show. It's generally agreed that any team that can put together three rounds somewhere near the Merion Golf Club par of 36-34—70 has a good chance of winning the Eisenhower Trophy.

Wylie, 30-year-old Calgarian and this year's Alberta amateur champion, will be teaming with Johnny Johnston, 35, of Vancouver, 1959 Canadian amateur champion; Keith Alexander, 30, of Calgary, this year's Canadian amateur champion, and Gary Cowan, 21, of Toronto, low amateur in the 1960 Canadian Open.

Non-playing captain is Bruce Forbes of Brantford, Ont. All members of the team were on the Canadian 1960 Americas Cup squad which wound up second to the U.S.

SOUTH AFRICA HOPEFUL

South Africa's Arthur Walker, the only member of that country's 1958 team to return this year, figures his squad will give the defending champion Australians some tough moments.

"We're not exactly confident that we'll win, but we feel pretty good about our chances," said Walker. "All of our boys have shot 69 or 70 more than once in practice."

The world team championship is designed to foster international understanding through golf, but there's not a player here who isn't out to win.
