

POLICE CHASE IN HARBOR: COUNCIL: THE SHOW

ORGANIZATION OF A MOOSE LODGE WILL TAKE PLACE SOON

In the matter of the installation and initiation of members of a lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose in this city, a letter was received on Saturday by Dr. J. P. Cade from H. L. Replogle, the national organizer, who now has headquarters in Vancouver. The charter and paraphernalia for the installation ceremonies have arrived here in readiness for the opening of the lodge. Some dissatisfaction has been lately expressed at the apparent tardiness of the two organizers who were here some weeks ago.

However, Mr. Edgar Easter has arrived in the city and soon the lodge will be properly opened and all the applicants for membership initiated as charter members. It is understood that upward of three hundred and fifty application fees were paid to the two travelling organizers while they were here working on the organization of the new lodge in this city. This announcement of Mr. Replogle's will give great satisfaction to all who are concerned with the matter.

COUNCIL IS CONFIDENT IN ITS VIRTUE

The Prince Rupert Board of Trade came in for severe criticism—one might almost say censure—at the hands of the City Council last evening over the discussion of a letter from the former body requesting assurance from the Mayor and City Council that law and order would be maintained in the event of a strike or other labor troubles taking place in the city. It was considered out of place and entirely unnecessary to send any such communication to the City Council. In the first place, the Council held that there was no strike threatened, everything being perfectly peaceful in the city, and in the second, the city fathers maintained that there were absolutely no grounds for supposing that they would do otherwise than act in the best interests of the city should any such contingency such as that suggested arise.

PILES PAID IN DUTY SUM OF $18,000 HERE

At the dry dock work is pressing on with great rapidity. The piling placed to date is already assuming imposing proportions and is admitted by engineers to be the best on the Prince Rupert waterfront. Two large scow loads of new creosoted piles reached here this week-end from Seattle, and paid in duty to the local Customs department office no less a sum than $18,000. One scow load paid $5,000 and the other $13,000. This in itself reveals a practical aspect of the immensity and expense of this great undertaking.

Kaieen Club Dance.

The members of the Kaieen Island Club will be "at home" this evening at their quarters on Third avenue, when another of the enjoyable and delightful little dances will be given to members and their friends.

RUPERT'S SCAVENGING CONTRACT

After a lengthy discussion last evening at the meeting of the City Council, which at one time threatened to assume an importance of an almost international character, the question of the scavenging contract, at present held by J. G. Weston, remained where it was for a week. The present holder is to be held to his contract until such time as he makes satisfactory disposition to some other party in regard to taking it over. The city is to be guarded against the possibility of being involved in a legal impasse in the matter of the arrangement made between Mr. Weston and the party taking over the contract by the watchful eye of the city solicitor. It is probable that Robert McCook, who at present is working for Mr. Weston, will take it over, if it can be so arranged with the latter.

MERRY MUSICAL COMEDY BY THE JUVENILES DELIGHTED

Prince Rupert knows now what to expect from the Juvenile Bostonians, and last night saw the Westholme Theatre crowded with an eager audience. The play-ette-opera staged was "The Ransom," quite a "Bohemian girl" in its way, and in every way the performance of the juvenile company was excellent. Solo and chorus throughout gave intense satisfaction and as for the comic and burlesque aspects of the performance they were beyond description delightful.

Miss Patsy Henry as "White Pete" proved herself a brilliant and scintillating star of the first magnitude. So did Miss "Dodie" Canfield as "Sir Reggie," the interested English tenderfoot. Miss Thom Hellen as "Pedro" is a capital actress with reserve and restraint in serious vein and a rich singing voice well in command. That charming tiny tot, Stubby Myling, as "Zip" simply carried away the hearts of her audience again and again, especially in her action part in the "Polar Bear" song by Pete and in "Skiddy-ma-rink-a-boom." "Save Your Kisses for Me," sung by Miss Marie, was an appreciated song and chorus, and the quartette "In Sunny Italy" greatly delighted. There can be no doubt of the excellence of this company. Tonight they stage "Tips," a racing comedy with catchy music. It will be worth seeing for certain.

MEETING OF THE FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

The usual weekly meeting of the Prince Rupert Football Association was held in the association office, Second avenue, last night, Mr. J. Day Bell in the chair. The first item of business to be discussed was the referee's report of the abandoned match on August 1st. After some discussion it was unanimously decided to uphold the referee on the stand he took on that occasion. Then the matter of dealing with one of the Callie players, J. Currie, for disobeying the referee came up for discussion. A motion was put forward by J. H. Kelly that the player be censured severely. This was followed by an amendment by Mr. Kirk that he be suspended for three days. On a division the motion was carried by four votes to two.

THE CITY, THE BANK AND THE BONDS

At the regular weekly session of the City Council last evening it was decided to accept the offer of the London capitalists, made through Mr. Fisher, for the purchase of the city bonds at the price now offered of 97 cents net. This is provided the banks will not offer more for the treasury bonds.

LARGEST PILE SHIPMENT EVER SENT TO CITY

Mr. Burroughs, the local manager of the Lester W. David Co., in receipt of a wire to the effect that the large barge of creosoted material, which is some days past due, being shipped by his company for the dry dock work, has been delayed by reason of the tug Lady of the Lake, which is towing the barge, breaking down and having to lay in for repairs before she could proceed. The shipment is one of the largest ever moved on the Pacific coast and much interest is manifested at its arrival, which, according to Mr. Burroughs' advice, should be tomorrow or Thursday.

SUSPECTED BLIND PIG TOOK TO THE WATER THIS MORNING POLICE HAD EXCITING CHASE

By devious means information reached the city police force this morning that there had been detected about the Indian gasoline boat "White Crow," owned by Amos Collison, a very suspicious odor of brandy and other spirituous liquor. The White Crow was perched (so to speak) down at the waterfront and certain white men, it was alleged, had been seen to go aboard of her. They were suspected of having the liquor in their possession and a case of "supplying" seemed imminent. Constable Bailey, himself a sailor of the seven seas, was instantly on the qui vive. He made for the waterfront ready to effect an arrest, but somehow warning tidings had reached the White Crow. When the police reached the scene that bird of a boat was speeding seaward. But Constable Bailey was not to be balked. Swiftly he chartered the Laura F., George Frizzell's flyer, and set out to overhaul the fugitive White Crow, blind pig or whatever she might be. There was an exciting race. The Laura F. won. In triumph she came within hailing distance, the police ordered the White Crow to heave to and boarded her. After examination the Indian boat was towed back to the waterfront, while her occupants were taken up town to answer for their wild flight from the police boat.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS FOR RUPERT

Professor Adam Shortt, chairman of the Civil Service Commission for the Dominion, in paying a visit to Prince Rupert this week-end has made an important statement. In view of the increasing number of probable applicants for civil service positions who have their homes in Prince Rupert and the number of senior scholars who may be desirous of sitting civil service examinations, he is willing that Prince Rupert may be made a civil service examination centre so that those sitting the examinations may be saved the expense and trouble of going south. Professor Shortt is also taking up statistical matters regarding the provinces in relation to the Dominion statistical work.

The splendid block retained by the Provincial government between Second and Third avenues and Third and Fourth streets, on which are erected the present temporary wooden Provincial buildings.
