

THAT RESTLESS YELLOW DRAGON.

Typical scene in the streets of the Chinese capital, showing throngs of refugees from outlying districts driven into the city in dread by prowling brigand bands. Efforts are being made to exterminate the marauders, but they have secured quite a foothold in some of the northern parts.

A FINAL PLUNGE

We hear a great deal these days about world's records being smashed and we say

Wonderful

Do you know there are records being smashed today in Prince Rupert and that some of its merchants who claim to have the "Do Things" spirit are doing what at one time seemed impossible?

Since we commenced our thirty days' Clear-Out Sale our landlord has favored us with an extension, so

We Close Wednesday and Thursday

In order that we may rearrange our stock. We swung the axe and cut deep into our prices last time, but since then we have undergone a course of training and our muscles have become so firm that on Wednesday and Thursday of this week we will beat all our former achievements.

We Open Again Friday at 10 o'clock

See our beautiful sewing chairs in Second Avenue window. We usually sell them at $1.50; now they are 75c. We have only a dozen left.

TEDDY IS STILL QUITE A SMALL CZAR

New York, Aug. 5—The National Progressive party must accept Colonel Roosevelt's political doctrines if he is to be its standard bearer. He said late yesterday when he started for Chicago that he would insist upon making his "Confession of Faith" to the delegates before his platform committee makes its final report, and that he would not accept nomination on a platform that he did not approve.
