GOREN ON BRIDGE

"America's top expert"

Copyright: The Chicago Tribune

Both vulnerable. South deals.

Declarer tried three times unsuccessfully to get a needed sluff today in his slam contract but persistence finally paid off on the fourth attempt.

The bidding was reasonable North's hand was a little too strong for an immediate jump raise, the upper limit of which is 16 points, so he temporized with a bid of two diamonds After South's two heart rebid however, North gave a jump preference in spades. When South tested for slam possibilities by cuing the ace of clubs, North took charge and leaped to six spades.

West made the natural lead of the jack of clubs. Dummy's queen was covered by East's king and won by declarer. He cashed the ace of diamonds, felling East's jack, and crossed to dummy with the king of hearts in order to attempt an immediate discard on the king of diamonds. It was frustrating when East ruffed with the deuce of spades, but South overruffed with the four and tried again. He led a heart to the ace and then the queen of diamonds. East ruffed with the five and South again overtrumped with the seven.

Declarer led a third round of hearts and West had to discard for, if he ruffed in with the ace of spades, declarer would let go of dummy's remaining club. The heart trick was trumped in dummy and back came the ten of diamonds which East greeted with his last trump and South once more overruffed with the queen. Now only the ace of trumps was outstanding. It was a simple matter for declarer to lead another heart and ruff in dummy, dropping the queen and establishing South's ten. A diamond ruff put declarer in to lead the good heart and discard dummy's club.
