CAP-BREWER VOWS REPEATED

Presbyterian church rites followed by ocean honeymoon

Standards of white stocks graced the altar of First Presbyterian church Saturday evening when Heather MacKenzie Brewer, RN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. K. Brewer of this city became the bride of Henry E. Cap, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cap of Portage La Prairie, Manitoba.

Rev. Ivan S. Gamble officiated at the 7:30 p.m. service with Mrs. E. J. Smith presiding at the organ.

Walking up the aisle on the arm of her father the bride was lovely in white dulcette satin, accented with French Chantilly lace. A scooped neckline framed the fitted bodice created to hip-length and which fell to a bouffant skirt.

A chapel-length veil was held in place by a Juliet crown composed of tulle and sequins and red happiness roses former her cascade bouquet, intermingled with heather. In Scottish tradition MacKenzie tartan ribbon decorated the bouquet.

Mrs. Marion Wandl, as matron-of-honor, chose to wear a waltz-length silk organza gowh with an overskirt of red polka dot nylon. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of red candy striped carnations.

Best man was Daniel Bartko and ushers were John Lenuik and Steven Mentenko.

The bride's mother received the guests in the Canadian Legion auditorium wearing a dust rose lace gown. She chose white for costume accessory and her carnation corsage was en tone.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in navy blue silk and she also chose a white hat and accessories to off-set her ensemble. Her carnation corsage was matching.

Seated before a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by white stalks, the bride received her toast prepared by Alex S. Mitchell.

Newlyweds left aboard the "Canadian Prince" for a honeymoon in Vancouver and points south.

Upon their return they will make their home at 812 Sixth Avenue East. Mr. Cap is employed at the Columbia Cellulose Company Limited at Watson Island and Mrs. Cap is a nurse on the staff of the Prince Rupert General hospital.

Mrs. McCready, Fortune to attend CCF convention

The election took place Thursday night when the club held its regular meeting to complete plans for a "Meet the Candidate Social," to be held in the Aero club, May 6.

In other business the club endorsed the statement of Angus Macphee, CCF candidate for Prince Rupert who called for the government to take over the Klemtu cannery now closed by the company. The statement also called for the government to operate it on a co-operative basis.

MUSEUM BRIEFS' . . .

By JOCELYN BOLTON

Since my last article, we have given the Museum a house cleaning and feel that the displays look better. The office has been given a coat of paint and we now have a tile floor in the office, hall and small archives which add a great deal to the "Welcome" mat.

We had to close the Museum for a week, and if anyone was disappointed during that time we are sorry, but once a year we have to give the exhibits a cleaning and re-arrange some of them, as we are always receiving new things.

Willis Metcalfe of Milford, Ontario sent us some pieces of clay sherds which were made by the Iroquois Indians years ago. We have also received another arrow point from Laurie Gordon of Prince Rupert which he found on Hospital Island. Gloria Holthe also brought us some rocks and all these donations add to the interest of the Museum.

We are very happy also to have acquired a fine "Button" Blanket—and a lovely 13¾" Argillite Totem pole carved by Ike Hans of Skidegate, Queen Charlotte Islands. We have been quite busy with guests lately from Saskatchewan, Texas, Vancouver, Terrace, Kitimat and many others.

Also a number of local people have brought their guests to see us. Mrs. W. A. Schultz visited us with two ladies, Mrs. Crocker of Vancouver and Mrs. M. Robertson of Terrace. Mrs. James Pinniger was also a guest with her sister and family from Salmon Arm, B.C.

We are hoping to have our shrubs in next week, and wish to express our thanks to Bud Pierce for his interest in our grounds and for all the work he has done to improve our looks. Mr. Pierce and his gardeners have taken a great interest in the Museum and we appreciate their work very much.

We have the new 1960 booklet, from the provincial government, listing camp sites, motels and hotels in B.C. and will be pleased to give folders to those who require them.

We are receiving many enquiries about Prince Rupert, particularly people wishing to travel to Alaska, and it will be a great day when there is a ferry between our city and Alaska, people have even arrived, thinking they can get to Alaska on a regular boat, and are very upset when told there is no such service.

Her story entitled "Heat Wave" will be heard over John Drainie's morning program on May 11.

JUNE EDWARDS EARNS 'BEST SUPPORTING' AWARD

City actors receive high praise for entries in Skeena festival

The Prince Rupert Little Theatre placed a close second in the third annual Skeena District Drama Festival held at Kitimat April 7, 8 and 9.

"A Phoenix Too Frequent," the group's first entry in the festival was marked runnerup to Kitimat's "The Ugly Duckling."

Adjudicator Mrs. Charlotte Moore said that "it was a difficult decision to make between the two very good entries."

Earning an award for Prince Rupert was June Edwards as the best supporting actress.

In her adjudication Mrs. Moore said that "A Phoenix Too Frequent" if poorly presented could have been very boring.

"I wasn't bored and the hour passed quickly," she said.

"The pace was excellent, moves and blocking well thought out and costumes were extremely good," she said.

However due to the poor lighting Mrs. Moore said she was unable to see the expressions on the actor's faces.

In the Junior High school section Booth Memorial Junior High Drama club received honorable mention for its presentation of "The Stolen Prince."

It was unfortunate that the play was the only entry and so unable to receive an award, Mrs. Moore said.

However the students were commended for a very good presentation, which was well received and highly praised.

Besides winning the highest award for drama the Kitimat group won the best actress and actor awards. Award winners were Priscilla Young and Jim Fitzsimmons.

Best supporting actor award went to Norbert Cote of Terrace.

The "Best Visual" presentation award based on setting, costumes, movement, blocking and pace was won by Prince Rupert Little Theatre.
