THE PANAMA PROTEST

"The canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and of war observing these rules, on terms of entire equality, so that there shall be no discrimination against any such nation, or its citizens or subjects in respect of the conditions or charges of traffic or otherwise. Such conditions and charges of traffic shall be just and equitable." The "rules" mentioned are rules governing the relations of the canal to warfare and neutrality. The whole quotation is the important provision in clause 1, article III of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, which Great Britain holds has been violated by the United States in the Senate legislation passed giving toll free passage through the Panama Canal to American vessels whether coastwise or foreign. J. H. Turner, agent general for British Columbia in London, has strongly supported the protest movement, arguing that this violation of the treaty would seriously injure British Columbia.

MUST THE BOATS GO FARTHER AWAY?

Although you can still hire a power boat promptly at the Government wharf, and even do it by phone, too, the situation in regard to accommodation for small boats in Prince Rupert harbor is getting sadder every day. With the swift strides of progress made by the dry dock old safe anchorages and beaching places for small boats are rapidly disappearing. The rocky front of the grade between Hays Creek and the cold storage presents no shelter. Seal Cove is the only place at all possible for the accommodation of small boats. Several floats have already gone there. But Seal Cove is a long way from Sixth street, and the desirable enterprise of boat hiring languishes. Next in importance to the matter of the sale of Provincial government lots and erection of buildings comes, in the mind of many a citizen, the problem of accommodation for the mosquito fleet, also laid before the Premier.

NUMBER NINES.

We owe an apology to Miss Birdie McNitt for an unfortunate error which crept into our recent mention of her lawn party. The paragraph in question stated that Miss McNitt wore a hunting costume, and her footgear consisted of "what looked like ferry boats." It should have read "fairy boots."—Cheboygan News.

WORK WITHOUT WORRY.

A man who can work without worrying can stand almost any amount of it and keep in tip-top condition. The college athletes, by which we set so much store, merely touch the surface. As often as not the crack oarsman or half back is the first to break under the strain of business. In modern conditions, except for manual laborers, a man's power of resistance lies not in his muscles but in his nerves. And for sound nerves—in spite of materialistic science—we would bank more upon a state of mind than upon a state of body. In a large way, not to worry means not to take yourself too seriously; to keep a sense of proportion by which, after all, you appear as merely a transitory dot. — Saturday Evening Post.

OVERSEAS CLUB'S MAIN NEWSPAPER

The London Daily Mail dealing editorially with Canada's naval officers, says:
 "There is today serious risk that the little navy party may use any gift of Dreadnaughts by the Canadian people to reduce the outlay in British ship building. It is even probable this party is trading on Canada's generosity at the present time. If the noble gift is made an excuse for refusal to build ships which ought to have been laid down this year, the whole object of the Canadian gift would be nullified. Instead of leading competition in armaments by giving the imperial navy a decisive superiority it will leave the position unchanged in its weakness."

PROPOSE END OF ITALY'S WAR WITH TURKEY

London, Aug. 8.—A despatch to a news agency from Constantinople says that the Turkish government has appointed a mission to discuss peace between Turkey and Italy and that it meets the Italian delegates at Lausanne, Switzerland. According to a statement published by the Daily Express the seizure of Tripoli by Italy was due to Italy getting wind of German negotiations at Constantinople to acquire rights in Tripoli by purchase which would be tantamount to giving Germany actual possession of the country.

YOU MUST GO TO SLEEP TO BE AWAKE

Of all the subjects upon the poets none is so deservedly praised as this. The sleep that blots out the troubles and excitements of the day; that is the "sweet, oblivious antidote," cleansing the stuffed bosom of the perious stuff which weighs upon the heart; that makes a man fit, that brings rest and recuperation and multiple strength—happy is the man that can command it at will.
 And the most important thing about it is this: that no man can be wide awake who hasn't had a good night's rest.

WHO SHOOTS THE SQUIRREL ANYWAY?

John Taylor, totally blind, of Pineville, was the very first person in Bell County to secure a hunter's licence. Taylor is an ardent hunter and probably kills more squirrels than any one hunter in his county. He is always accompanied by his wife; when the game is found he holds the gun, his wife takes sight, he pulls the trigger, and he rarely misses the squirrel he shoots at. — Hazel Green Herald.

MONTENEGRO MAY HAVE WAR WITH TURKEY

Constantinople, Aug. 8.—Turkey today gave Montenegro 24 hours in which to explain Montenegrin activities on the Turkish frontier. Unless a satisfactory explanation is forthcoming Turkey will sever diplomatic relations at once, and the Turkish minister notified Montenegro that such action would be followed by war.

The Montenegrins and Albanians are racially related, and Montenegro is also ambitious to get Albania. This, Turkish officials say, accounts for the activities on the Turkish frontier. The Sultan of Turkey is aroused over the activities of Montenegro, and it is expected he will name the strongest man he can find as dictator. Chefket Pasha and Kaimil Pasha are prominently mentioned for the dictatorship.

AUSTRALIA TO SPEND WELL FOR DEFENSE

Sydney, Aug. 10.—The principal feature of the Commonwealth budget is the proposal to spend almost £4,000,000 on new works and buildings from revenue. Details of the expenditure include the following: For fleet construction, £1,317,000; other naval work, £284,000; military works, £876,000; post office, including wireless, £1,055,000. Other defense expenditures amount to £2,748,000, including provision for full complements for three cruisers, two submarines and a depot ship for the last four months of the year. Ten wireless stations are to be constructed.

Would Linger Longer

In a storm at sea the chaplain asked one of the crew if he thought there was any danger.
 "Oh, yes," replied the sailor; "if it blows as hard as it does now we shall all be in heaven by 12 o'clock tonight."
 The chaplain, terrified at the expression, cried out, "The Lord forbid."—Life.
