SPLENDID SEND-OFF FOR BOSTONIANS

That Prince Rupert has made good as being one of the best show towns on the Pacific coast is an established fact that has been flashed by telegraph to every city in Canada and the United States. The closing engagement on Saturday evening, "The Minstrels," followed by that laughable comedietta, "Hoffman's Holiday," played to a packed house that was something phenomenal in the history of the show business in Prince Rupert. As was announced in the daily press, the Juvenile Bostonians delighted their myriad of admirers by rendering once again those popular hits that have become the catch-word of two continents.

This morning witnessed the departure for the south of the breezy company of Juveniles, and their send-off was a magnificent one. All Prince Rupert, it seemed, was on the wharf waving a farewell to the laughing lasses. "Crip" was there on board right in the middle of the throng of them, and dozens of the most popular boys in Rupert lined the waterfront and gangway. With many a warm hearted expression of good will the company departed, leaving behind them a good impression which will not easily be obliterated by any subsequent success on any Prince Rupert stage.

TOPICS OF INTEREST IN TERRACE

Daily News Special Correspondence.)

Terrace, Aug. 10.—Now that the ferry site has been settled, work has commenced in earnest on the government road leading to it. The road runs past D. B. Kenney's home to the slough, which, it is understood, is to be bridged, the road continued across the island and the ferry run from there to the opposite side of the river. When completed this will give the Lakelse ranchers much easier access to Terrace, as well as being a great convenience for the people on this side of the river.

Kalem street, between Greig and Lakelse avenues, has been greatly improved during the last week by having the old bridge torn out, a new one put in and considerable grading done on it. The McLeod road camp did the work.

The saw mill is now in operation and Mr. Little is handling all kinds of lumber.

Mr. Salchelder, the millwright, had the misfortune to have one of his legs crushed between two timbers on Thursday. He will be around again in a few days.

D. B. Kenney arrived home on Wednesday after a short trip to Vancouver. He reports things very quiet in the city.

Engineer Large and family of Prince Rupert are moving into the house formerly occupied by C. A. Giggy. Mr. Giggy has moved to his own home on Lazelle avenue.

Ed. Michaud reports having seen a big silver tip and cub on the island the other day. As a result all the guns in town are being cleaned up.

Among the visitors at the Lakeman, government road superintendent; James Darby, Portland; G. A. McNicholl, Prince Rupert; Mr. Richards, Vancouver, and W. H. Woods, Seattle.

PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR REPUDIATES THE IDEA OF PURPOSELESS PUNISHMENT

In a strong, direct sermon delivered to a very large audience in the Empress Theatre last night Rev. F. W. Kerr gave his own personal views regarding the theory of eternal punishment. The pastor scathingly condemned the meanness of men who lived base lives in the belief that no punishment awaited them in the after death period. But Rev. Kerr most emphatically denied belief in any purposeless, wanton or apparently vindictive torturing of souls in an eternity of fire or any other torment, by an all-wise, all-loving God. Hell, in this young pastor's view, is the unremitting effort of God for the saving from error and drawing to Himself and the happiness of goodness, of all that He has made. In Rev. Kerr's concluding phrase after his emphatic denial of belief in eternal, purposeless punishment is found the keynote of his conviction on the subject. "God," he said, "will pursue you if you err, with the purpose of redemption, bringing to bear on you with endless patience the power of Love, the discipline of pain, the discipline if need be of an eternity of pain in order that the sinner may at last be taught the way of peace."

BEEF REACHES RECORD PRICE FOR WORLD

Chicago, August 10.—Beef on the hoof reached $10 per hundred pounds here today, breaking all records. Armour and Swift were bidding against each other for steers when the high mark was touched.

Making a Flat World Round

When Columbus set out to reach India by sailing westward, he met with opposition and ridicule. He believed the earth to be round.

Wise men held that it was flat—that Columbus was mad—and that he'd fall off somewhere if he departed from established beliefs.

But Columbus' belief found him a continent and made him blessed of memory.

The Business World is flat to some men

Their profit-bearing shores of Opportunity stretch only so far as their grandfathers trod. Custom, superstition and apathy have set them confinés which they may not pass.

For instance, they believe the business year is a flat one—not an all-year round of trade, with East joining West, with Spring merging into Autumn—but just two distinct seasons, with sawed-off edges gaping into space.

They confine their activities to a Spring trade and to a Fall trade. To them there is no intervening continent with stores of waiting wealth. Their world is flat. They have not explored the mid-year months of Summer trade. June, July and August are never-never land.

Surely this conception of Summer as a "dull" season is as fallacious as the delusion that the earth was flat. People have just as much money in the hot weather and spend quite as freely as in Spring and Fall. Granted that they are not buying skates and snow shovels in August, yet they are buying staple articles. Furthermore, they have an eye on luxuries and comforts they are counting upon purchasing in the Fall.

The modern Columbus has discovered this Summer trade—this golden West lying between the known continents of old beliefs. Departing from established habit, many have made their energies and their Advertising an all-year-round proposition.

Keeping up Advertising during the Summer months not only links your Spring and Fall, but produces rich harvests from the Summer months themselves.

MERELY MABEL REMARKS

That now the little girl actresses have gone south why neglected local beauty will smile again.

That the two bank boys who so ineffectually followed the gleam of two bright eyed juveniles on Sunday will get over it all right.

That "Crip" sure was shanghaied this morning, but he will be back again next boat.

That some of the ladies seemed surprised when a certain pastor suggested they might take off their hats so he could see his audience, but by and by you saw everybody doing it.

That the man who came out of the Empress Theatre last night humming "Noel, Noel" may find out his mistake some day.

That two or three Scotch theologians fresh from the heather are not just sure but that Kerr thinks Calvin was in the right after all.

He—"I'm going to kiss you when I go." She—"Do it now, while I'm still young."
