BIG VISITOR

CHICOUTIMI, Que. (CP)— This Saguenay River port has just handled the biggest vessel anyone can remember docking here, the 10,000-ton Canuck Trader, which took on scrap iron for Japan.

LATEST FAD

HAMILTON (CP)—Touch football is the latest fad here. More than 200 carloads of players and fans jammed McMaster University campus for the game that has eliminated tackling.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	1♥	Pass
4♥	Pass	6♥	Pass
Pass	Pass

Opening lead: King of ♠

North and South arrived today at a reasonable slam contract which appeared to hinge on a favorable trump split. When this failed to come off declarer was apparently set. However, a bit of determination plus some favorable side distribution combined to help him to resolve matters successfully.

The bidding was short and direct. South opened in the third seat with one heart. When North jumped to game, South decided to shoot it out for slam in the hope that his partner's distributional features would provide a favorable fit.

West opened the king of spades. Declarer won and played two high trumps. Had hearts broken, declarer's anxieties would have been virtually at an end. But now he saw prospects were dim since a diamond loser appeared inevitable.

Heroic efforts were required and declarer started out to give it the old college try. Everything must be directed toward forcing a lead away from the king of diamonds thru an end play.

He cashed the ace and king of clubs, ruffed a club in his hand, then ruffed a spade in dummy, and ruffed another club in his own hand, establishing the fifth club in dummy. He then ruffed his remaining spade and when West's queen fell, there appeared a glimmering ray of hope. In the absence of a false card, West's remaining cards—with the exception of the queen of hearts—were all diamonds.

Declarer cashed the good club on which both he and West discarded diamonds and then he gave up the lead with dummy's remaining trump.

West, in with the queen of hearts, was left without choice as to the return. The low diamond lead was taken by dummy's queen and the ace of diamonds won the last trick.
