$275 FOR PRINCE RUPERT CLINIC

Fourth CARS ball successful function

Funds for the operation of the Prince Rupert Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism clinic were boosted by $275 Friday night when 40 couples attended the Fourth Annual CARS Bluebird Ball at the Elks Home.

The local Bluebird Ball, sponsored here by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and Order of the Royal Purple, is the only Bluebird Ball staged outside of Vancouver, E. H. Knight, ball committee chairman, told guests.

He made the comment while reading congratulatory telegrams from CARS director Miss Mary Pack and the Vancouver Bluebird Ball committee.

MISS PRINCE RUPERT

Welcoming guests and presiding over part of the evening's entertainment was Barry Anne Crummy, Miss Prince Rupert of 1959.

Enthusiastic applause was given an array of local talent which provided the floor show. Artists included Joanne Clee who sang "I Could Have Danced All Night" from "My Fair Lady" and "Wouldn't It Be Loverly" from the same stage show and "It's A Most Unusual Day" as encores; Vocalist Victor Wells and guitarist Henry Kelly who combined for "Little Grass Shack," "You'd Be So Nice To Come Home To" and "Don't Bring Lulu," and Beryl Karasosky who sang "Some of These Days."

Popular master of ceremonies Harley Lewis sang "I May Never Pass This Way Again" and "He" with Nora Thompson as accompanist.

Mrs. Thompson also played two well-received piano selections "El La Rella Carro" and "The Thunder And Lightning Polka" by Johann Strauss.

Johnny Clifton, leader of the Hartley Bay Five dance ensemble which annually donates its services to the Bluebird Ball, expressed his pleasure and that of his fellow musicians at being a part of the yearly event.

Earlier, Mr. Knight expressed the ball committee's appreciation to all those who had helped to make the ball a success, particularly city merchants who had donated prizes.

D. J. Parent was the winner of the blue budgie while spot dance winners were David Ridsdale and Miss Lis Pedersen. Others who won prizes were Mrs. Richard A. Morley, a tea service; H. W. Stothert, a table lamp; Dr. Donald Oakley, a side of bacon.

World Chief Guide is Lady Baden-Powell, widow of the founder of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides.
