First NHL scoring tie possible

Dick Moore leads from Litzenberger

MONTREAL (CP)—The way the six leaders are heading into the stretch run in the National Hockey League scoring derby, there's a good chance the league will have its first tie in history.

Dickie Moore of Montreal Canadiens, winner last season, made his move last week with an eight-point production and sprinted from a fourth-place tie into first place. His two goals and six assists sent his point total to 69.

Bunched behind him, with some shifting of positions during the week, are Eddie Litzenberger of Chicago Black Hawks, 68 points; Andy Bathgate, New York Rangers, 67; and Bernie Geoffrion, Montreal, 66.

Closing fast and tied at 63 points are Jean Beliveau of Montreal, who scored three goals and four assists last week, and Gordie Howe of Detroit Red Wings.

GOALS BREAK TIE

What happens in case of a tie on points NHL regulations say the fellow with the most goals gets the title—and the $1,000 that goes with it. The runner-up gets $500.

Moore heads the goal-getters with 32 and Bathgate 31.

If the tie still persists the fellow who has played the fewer number of games is the winner. If a tie still exists the player who scored the first goal of the season is the champ. Moore has the edge there. He scored his first at 6:56 of the first period of Montreal's first game.

Montreal Canadiens, in front with a 15-point lead, and the second-place Chicago Black Hawks had the best team record of the week—two wins and loss.

Boston Bruins won and lost in two starts while New York won, lost and tied. Detroit dropped two of three and Toronto Maple Leafs lost and tied in two outings.

Paolo Rosi challenges Joe Brown

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Fifth-ranking Paolo Rosi, his right eye battered and his left badly cut, today challenges champion Joe Brown for his lightweight boxing crown—and simultaneously vows "no more southpaws."

Rosi won a disputed decision over lefthanded Flash Elorde of Manila in a fast, slashing 10 rounds Monday. But he emerged with three cuts about the left eye, puffs below and above the right eye, and a new respect for lefties.

However, the 135-pound New York Italian expects to be ready to fight again in two months. He said the cuts aren't as bad as they look.

He and his manager, Cy Cresci, both said they'd prefer to fight Brown right here in the Cow Palace. Rosi previously won another bloody split decision there from Irish Bobby Scanlon of San Francisco.

"I'll fight much better against Brown than this boy," Rosi proclaimed in his dressing room.

"It's too hard to fight southpaws without special training. I'd like to have Brown in two months, in San Francisco."

Cresci said he would send a challenge to Brown's manager, Lou Viscusi, today. Viscusi recently said the winner between Rosi and unranked, 132-pound Elorde seemed the logical challenger.

Rosi won referee Frankl Carter's approval 100-94 and judge Eddie James' 98-97. Judge Jack Downey disagreed, 96-93 for the flasher.

Rosi's forehead was cut in the fourth round and blood blinded him for a few seconds.

Flash's fists, chiefly his left, opened and re-opened other cuts. Each time blood spurted, Elrode stepped back until the Italian shook it out of his eyes.

Rosi said Elorde is a good, young puncher who surprised with his stamina, but has no power in his punches.

Olmedo takes U.S. indoor tennis title

NEW YORK (AP)—Davis Cup ace Alex Olmedo won the U.S. indoor tennis championship Monday by defeating defending champion Dick Savitt of New York 7-9, 6-3, 6-4, 5-7, 12-10.

The California senior had no easy task with Savitt. The match took three hours. Savitt made a remarkable comeback in the fourth set but as it turned out, Olmedo had just enough left to hold him off.

Olmedo was leading at 5-4. Savitt broke his service in the 10th game, held his own delivery in the 11th and smashed through again in the 14th.

That sent it into the fifth set in which Olmedo held every one of his services through the 22nd game and the championship was his.

Stamps can set new WHL record

SEATTLE (AP) — The Calgary Stampeders, who set a Western Hockey League consecutive game victory mark this season, had their sights on another mark Monday after winning their last seven in a row.

The Stampeders began the week with 38 wins, only six short of the league record held jointly by Brandon (1956-57) and Vancouver (1957-58).

Calgary leads Edmonton by a whopping 20 points in the prairie division with only 11 games left to play. Both Winnipeg and Saskatoon are mathematically out of the title running, and the Stampeders have to win but one more or the Flyers lose one more to be assured of the prairie division championship.

PENTICTON (CP) — Kelowna Packers, defending Okanagan Senior Hockey League champions, blasted Penticton Vs 9-5 in a lack-lustre game here Monday night to win a best-of-seven semi-final series 4-0.

Kelowna now will meet the winner of the Vernon-Kamloops series now tied at 2-2.

Clare Washinski with three goals paced the Packers. Rookie centre Gerry Goyer added two and Russ Kowalchuk, Andy McCallum, Jim Middleton and Bryan Roche adding single goals.

Veteran Bill Warwick, who rejoined the Vs for the playoff series, Jimmy Fairburn, Tick Beattie, Bob Chorley and Dave Gordichuk each scored once for Penticton.

KAMLOOPS (CP) — Playing-coach Billy Hryciuk scored three times and assisted on the fourth goal as Kamloops Chiefs defeated Vernon Canadians 4-1 to even their best-of-seven Okanagan Senior Hockey League semi-final series at 2-2.

Hryciuk, league scoring champion during the regular OSHL season, opened and closed the scoring for the Chiefs. Buddy Evans scored what proved to be the winning goal for Kamloops mid-way in the last period. Odie Lowe scored Canadians' only goal in the second.
