Yvon Durelle may be near end of career

MONCTON, N.B. (CP) — Chris Shaban, a grocer turned fight manager, indicated Friday that Yvon Durelle may be near the end of his boxing career.

"I don't think Yvon will have too many fights in the future," Shaban said.

Durelle, 29-year-old fisherman from Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., whose boxing career began 14 years ago when he knocked out a professional on a fishing pier for a purse of $1,750 was crushed Wednesday in his attempt to life Archie Moore's world light-heavyweight title in Montreal.

Shaban said in an interview Durelle's future is indefinite at the moment.

Durelle, British Empire light-heavyweight champion, said earlier he was not planning "to stick in this business too long . . . maybe one more year."

BARELY EXPLORED

Several new species of birds have been found on New Britain Island, 55 miles east of New Guinea in the Bismark Archipelago.
