VANCOUVER—Prince Rupert Rainmakers will clash with pre-tournament favorite Abbotsford in their second game of the double-knockout High School Boy's basketball at 7:45 tonight.

Prince Rupert scored a 54-45 upset over North Vancouver yesterday morning while Abbotsford defeated Notre Dame 55-42.

Commenting on yesterday's victory Rainmakers' coach Don Hartwig, said happily

"We had a hard time getting going. It took us a while to get used to that springy floor but we are used to the gymnasium now.

"We have to play a hard game tonight but if we get past that we'll really be going."

STAGED DRIVE

The Prince Rupert Rainmakers, an unknown quantity down here as this is only their fourth appearance in 15 years, knocked off favored North Vancouver High with third- and fourth-period drives.

The two teams were all tied up 11-11 at the end of the first quarter but North Van had pulled ahead 24-20 by half-time.

Starry Ian Dixon sank two quick field goals to open the third quarter bringing his game score to 23 points. Rupert surged back to take the lead 37-31 by the end of the quarter.

DIXON TIED UP

North Van relies heavily on Dixon who has averaged 30 points a game during the season but he was slowed down visibly yesterday as Dave Allen, Mike Lemon and Dick Specht tied him up whenever he got the ball.

He scored only three more points after the first minutes of the third quarter—on free shots—to bring his game total to 26.

Meanwhile for Rainmakers Dick Specht was scoring 21 points and John Olsen was picking up 19. Also scoring were Mike Lemon (8) and Dave Allan (6).

SPRINGY FLOOR

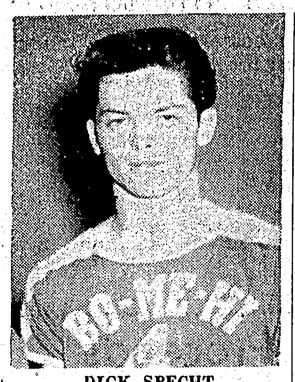
Rainmakers outplayed North Van through the game, but had difficulty hitting with their shots. The springy floor at UBC's War Memorial gymnasium also made a difference.

Lineups:

Rupert—Allen 6, Specht 21, Olsen 19, Lemon 8, Mitchell, MacLeod, Martin and Scuby.

North Van—Dobson, Dempsy, Hewer, Fairbrothers, Dunham, Carbon 14, Dixon 26, Metzner 2, Bland 2, Bretsford.

In other games, favored Courtenay whipped inexperienced Lumby 53-24; Penticton edged Alberni 47-45 on the strength of a fourth quarter comeback; Kimberley trimmed Chilliwack 41-24 paced by six-foot seven inch Arnold Frank's 18 points; Magee of Vancouver defeated Semiahmoo of White Rock 55-31; and Gladstone of Vancouver scored a surprising easy 51-36 victory over defending champion Victoria high.



DICK SPECHT

JOHN OLSEN

Floor hockey executive meets tonight

Decision as to whether or not two semi-final floor hockey games scheduled for tomorrow night will be cancelled, will be made tonight at an executive meeting of the Prince Rupert Floor Hockey association slated for the Civic Centre.

League president Ernie Novakowski said today that semi-final games between senior league teams Sports Shop and Savoy Hotel and junior league teams Ormes and RCMP had been cancelled by the players without knowledge of the executive.

Richardson family sweeps curling series

GLASGOW (Reuters) — The Richardson family of Regina has won all five games in the Scotch Cup curling championship for the second successive year.

The Canadian team today won the final game of this year's series 16-4 on Glasgow's Crossmyloff ice rink.

It brought the Canadian total for the series to 58 shots compared with 28 for Scotland.

Bassen, Fielder tie for awards

VANCOUVER (CP)—With a new baby in the house $500 always comes in handy.

That was Hank Bassen's first reaction when he was advised that he and Guyle Fielder tied in voting for the Western Hockey League's award as most valuable player in the 1959-60 season. The usual $500 was doubled by the sponsors.

Bassen, redheaded goaltender with the league-leading Vancouver Canucks, and Fielder, perennial award-winning centre with Seattle Totems, each polled 35 votes in balloting among players and coaches of the seven WHL teams.

For Bassen, the award came shortly after the 27-year-old goalie's wife had given birth to their second child.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—John Gordon (Dusty) Rhodes, 52, once a pitcher with New York Yankees and Boston, died Tuesday.

Underdog Wings take game lead in semis

TORONTO (CP)—Detroit Red Wings were underdogs, but now they nurse a one-game lead in their Stanley Cup semi-final with Toronto Maple Leafs and see no reason why it shouldn't blossom.

Every element of the Detroit game was effective Wednesday night as the Wings protected a couple of first-period goals for a 2-1 victory in the opening game of the best-of-seven series.

Gordie Howe scored the Wings' first goal and for the rest of the night shook off every effort by the Leafs to bottle him up. Len Haley, who scored one goal for Wings in 27 games this year as a National Hockey League rookie, picked a corner of the Leaf net for the winner.

AIRTIGHT DEFENCE

The Detroit defence forced Leaf attacks into the corners and held a third-period onslaught to one goal while Terry Sawchuk chipped in with some tremendous clutch netminding.

Defenceman Carl Brewer scored the Toronto goal, a lone rush late in the third period which brought the crowd of 12,853 roaring to its feet.

"We won the one we said we were going to win," yelled Detroit coach Sid Abel as his players whooped it up in the Wing dressing room.

"Who was my big man?" said Abel. "The guy that's always big—Gordie Howe."

The effectiveness of Wings' defensive pattern showed up in the shots on Sawchuk—five in the first period, six in the second, and seven in the third for a total of 18. Bower handled 28 Wing drives.

Canucks edge Flyers 4-3 in marathon

VANCOUVER (CP)— Vancouver Canucks won the first Western Hockey League playoff game Wednesday night, but it was a long, hard evening's work.

It wasn't decided until the second overtime period, when Colin Kilburn finally scored to give Canucks a 4-3 overtime win over Edmonton Flyers and a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven semi-final.

The game took 94 minutes to play and ended just before midnight.

At that it was well short of the league record of 115 minutes and 19 seconds set April 11, 1958 at Winnipeg by Vancouver and Winnipeg.

Second game of the Edmonton-Vancouver series is scheduled for Friday night with Victoria travelling to Seattle the same night for the opener of their semi-final.

FOUR-POINT NIGHT

Kilburn, a veteran WHL performer and a one-half of the old Edmonton "gold dust twins" combination, was the hero Wednesday, popping in the winner at 14 minutes of the second overtime period. He also drew assists on Ray Cyr's two goals and another by Danny Belisle.

For Edmonton it was Gene Achtymichuk, Warren Hynes and Gordon Strate.

Jessie Shenton paces Lockers in mixed loop

Jessie Shenton of A League's Frosty Locker in the Mixed Five Pin Bowling league rolled women's high triple of 680 aiding her team in taking high single and three with 1266 and 3488. Mary McLeod of B League's WOTM rolled high single of 236 while her team scores of 1144 and 3159 took team honors.

Other A League honors were taken by Bill McDonald of Standard Oil with men's high single of 319 while Marcel Baril of Diamond Cabs took high three with 713. Peggy Thompson of Fashion Footwear took women's high single with 287.

In B League Bill Klocker of Hybrids took both men's laurels with 284 and 720. Women's high three was captured by Jeannette Cloutier of Melrose with 579.

Trail evens west semis with Packers

KELOWNA (CP)—Trail Smoke Easters barrelled from behind a 3-0 first-period deficit to whip Kelowna Packers 8-5 and deadlock the best-of-seven Western Allan Cup semi-final series at 1-1.

Third game in the series will be played here tonight. The remainder of the series will then shift to Trail.

More than 1,600 fans saw the Okanagan League Packers roll to their 3-0 first-period margin. The Western International League champions roared back to tie the game in the second and then out-scored Packers 5-2 in the final period to gain the triumph.

Ad Tambellini and George Ferguson paced Trail with two goals each. Pinoke McIntyre, Hal Jones, Cal Hockley and Laurie Bursaw added singletons. Ferguson, McIntyre and Jones were picked up from Rossland of the WIHL for the series.

Kelowna's scoring was headed by Bill (Bugs) Jones who scored twice. Warren Hicks, Joe Kaiser and Jim Middleton got one each.

Port Arthur set for west finals

FORT WILLIAM, (CP) — Port Arthur Bearcats advanced into the Western Canada Senior Hockey final with a 5-2 victory over Saskatoon Quakers here Wednesday night.

The victory gave Bearcats the best-of-five series in straight games. They won 5-2 and 4-3 in Saskatoon.

They now meet the British Columbia representatives for the western title and a berth into the Allan Cup final against the eastern champion.

City riflemen lose mail match to Giscome club

Prince Rupert's Civic Centre Rifle Club has dropped to second place in the Western Canada mail shoot after losing its first match of the season to Giscome, B.C. by a total score of 783-780.

At the end of February, Rupert marksmen edged Saskatoon 781-775, but Calgary took both its matches to gain a four-win no loss record. Six more shoots remain.

Fernandez gets nod

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Hard-hitting Florentino Fernandez floored Ralph Dupas once and went on to gain a split decision over the New Orleans fighter Wednesday night.

Fernandez weighed 147¼, Dupas 145¾.

The knockdown came with a right to the face for a nine-count late in the seventh round.

Referee Bill Ragen scored the 10-rounder 98-93 for Fernandez and judge Stu Winston gave him a 96-94 edge. Judge Eddie Thal called it a 96-96 draw.
