Kinettes make blankets for children in hospital

A blanket-making work shop followed the dinner in La Gondola Cafe last week when the Prince Rupert Kinette club held its regular meeting.

At the home of Mrs. R. W. Long, the members worked on blankets to be completed June 1, for the Children's Ward in the Prince Rupert General hospital.

In other business a rummage sale was planned for April 16 and persons with rummage for pick-up are asked to call Mrs. G. F. Robertson at 5866.

In conclusion it was decided to operate a hamburger stand on all three nights of the Civic Centre Arts and Crafts Exhibition, to be held April 21, 22 and 23.

Smoking motive

LONDON (AP)—Husbands who drink in pubs when they ought to be home drive their wives to smoking, said a social service review published Wednesday. A three-city survey indicated that 49 per cent of the wives of pub-crawlers smoke a lot. Only 32 per cent of the wives of men who don't frequent pubs are smokers.

Queen Mother, Margaret plan wedding trousseau

LONDON (Reuters) — Queen Mother and Princess Margaret saw a parade of British spring fashions Tuesday.

With the special interest of a mother and daughter planning a wedding trousseau they watched a private showing entitled "tweeds to tiaras" by the Incorporated Society of London Fashion Designers.

There were no wedding dresses in the show.

Victor Stiebel, who is making the princess' going-away clothes, favored the "classic" crinoline for formal evening wear.

Lace was used by many of the couturiers, often re-embroidered in ribbon, diamante or beads.

KITCHEN FARE

Sea food, vegetables provide tasty menus

Sea food and vegetable casserole dishes made with evaporated milk are just the ticket for meatless meals.

The better blending qualities of double-rich evaporated milk are responsible for the creamy, smooth texture of th sauce which is baked with the fish and vegetables.

Try two variations . . . one with cauliflower and green pepper; the other with corn and tomato. Both recipes are ideal for Lenten menus.

Salmon and Cauliflower Continental
(Makes 6 servings)

1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 cup undiluted evaporated milk
2 egg yollks beaten
2 tablespoons soft butter
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1½ cup cooked cauliflower
½ cup finely chopped green pepper
2 ½-lb. cans or (1 lb.-can) salmon, drained
½ cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese

Blend 1 tablespoon butter, flour salt and pepper in saucepan over low heat. Slowly add evaporated milk. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Slowly stir a little hot sauce into beaten egg yolks. Add to remaining sauce. Stir in soft butter and lemon juice. Place hot cauliflower and green pepper in individual casseroles (or large shallow casserole). Top with salmon pieces. Spoon sauce over top. Sprinkle with cheese. Broil 5 to 6 inches from heat until sauce is bubbly (about 5 minutes). Serve at once.

Proceeds for entry in festival

Proceeds from the Booth Memorial Junior-High Drama club's "Masquerade Ball" tomorrow night in the school will go towards expenses for the club's entry "The Stolen Prince" in the Skeena District Drama Festival to be held in Kitimat April 7, 8 and 9.

Mayor P. J. Lester, Mrs. Raymond Pasemko and Mrs. Alice Houston will judge the costumes at the ball to be held from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

CONTINENTAL FARE SERVE Salmon and Cauliflower Continental with buttered peas and onion, and muffins. Makes a perfect meatless dinner during the Lenten season.
