MARDI GRAS SET FEBRUARY 27

MLA to support cause of Home and school

The enforcement of a School Safety Patrol, support in obtaining school films from the Department of Education and preparation for a Mardi Gras carnival were the highpoints of the last Annunciation Home and School association meeting.

In a letter written to the association, MLA William H. Murray told the group that he would personally take up the matter of receiving school films requested from the Department of Education with Minister of Education L. R. Peterson at the Legislative Assembly which begins January 28.

Mr. Murray assured the association that he was "entirely in accord" with the association's wishes.

With president Emile Blain in the chair, the meeting held last week, voted money for necessary equipment needed to put the Safety Patrol into effect as soon as possible.

Final plans were completed for the Home and School Mardi Gras to be held Saturday, February 27 in the auditorium.

Chairman H. G. Hennessy announced that the night function will feature a midway of games and booths to include home-cooking, rummage, fish-pond, buffet lunch counter, comic stall, candy booth and a baby sitting service.

He announced that the $1 raffle tickets for a projector, movie camera and screen were being printed.

A lively discussion was held on the type of films being shown at the local theatres at the matinee shows.

It was decided that should theatre manager T. H. Black not wish to co-operate in presenting more suitable films for children's shows, the association would ask the Catholic Men's club to put on Saturday afternoon shows in the auditorium. Walter Page was named chairman of this special committee.

It was announced that the Dental Clinic was now operated through the Skeena Health Unit and children's appointments were announced through the school with each parent being responsible for their own child.

A report on the school uniform showed that almost all children were now wearing the dress of the school.

Grade 5 teacher Patrick Kelly encouraged all parents to educate their children in the use of the library.

First Baptist church filled at Week of Prayer service

A capacity crowd filled the First Baptist church Friday night when Rev. J. A. Roskam, pastor of the church led the congregation in the sixth service in the World Week of Prayer.

Special music was provided by members of the Ministerial association.

Rev. Ivan S. Gamble and Salvation Army Captain Earl McInnes sang "Love, So Divine" and Mr. Gamble sang "Great Is Thy Faithfulness."

Rev. Arthur S. Olson of St. Paul's Lutheran church was the speaker. He based his message on John 14:12-14 and pointed out that the reason Christ could promise to do greater things through His people was because He was to be Glorified.

Mr. Olson also said that prayer must be in Christ's name because a person can claim nothing from God in their own right.

"Prayer must not be selfish but for God's Glory," the speaker said.

Mrs. W. D. Smith was organist for the service.

COMING... and GOING...

Mrs. Amy Dibb, Besner Apartments returned home Saturday by plane via Terrace following a two and a half-month winter vacation in New York where she visited many friends and was guest of her granddaughter Mrs. R. G. Batson. While away she attended hockey games, Broadway plays and visited the United Nations before spending a holiday in Vancouver visiting friends.

Mrs. Carl Halverson, 1125 Eighth Avenue East, left Saturday night aboard the "Canadian Prince" for a two-week holiday visiting members of the family in Vancouver.

Following a five-year tenure in the RCMP sub-division at Prince Rupert, Constable J. I. Collier leaves tomorrow by plane en route to Campbell River, where he has been transferred.

Many treatments given patients in district

More than 650 treatments had been administered during the fall months by Miss Philippa McIldowie, physiotherapist for the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society clinic in Prince Rupert, it was reported at the last CARS meeting of the year.

In her report before leaving prior to Christmas, Miss McIldowie said that treatments had been given to in-patients, out-patients, as well as home treatments, casual and post-natal and anti-natal treatments.

She also said that 91 treatments had been given patients in Terrace during the three-month period.

Local president Rev. J. A. Roskam, on behalf of the branch thanked the physiotherapist for her excellent work and upon presenting her with a souvenir spoon, wished her every success in her move to Victoria. She has been succeeded by Mrs. John Must, a former clinic physiotherapist.

In other business discussion on the annual Bluebird Ball was held, with the date set for February 26. The branch again decided to ask the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks and the Order of the Royal Purple for sponsorship.

It was reported that $2,533.99 was the net total of the annual campaign drive at that time.

The branch decided to write a letter of thanks to Hugo Kraupner of Rupert Cleaners and Laundry for continuing donations of free laundry service to the clinic.

Mrs. T. J. Boulter announced that she could represent the branch at the 1960 conference to be held in Vancouver.

In conclusion a nominating committee was appointed.

TCA DC-8 Jetliner Service begins this Spring!

VANCOUVER TO TORONTO IN ONLY 4 HOURS!

In a few short weeks the Jet Age, and a new era, comes to Canada. What a difference Jetliner Service will make to long distance travel! Flying times on many routes will be cut by almost half.

But there's more than speed to the story. Air travel will be more comfortable, more pleasant, than ever before. High above the weather, in the serene, sunny world of the upper air, flying is smooth and steady. So quiet that you'll enjoy high-fidelity music as you go!

In the giant DC-8, TCA engineers specified the best of two worlds—the aircraft by Douglas, the world's most experienced builder of airliners, the jet engines by illustrious Rolls-Royce. TCA's introduction of Jetliner Service is another, notable "first" for travel in Canada.
