ROTARY CLUB curlers emerged victorious yesterday afternoon on a total rock basis in the annual Rotary-Gyro club, knock-'em-down-drag-'em-out tournament which separates the men from the boy curlers. The Rotarians took the four game series 34-30, with Stan Cooper's squad (top left) edging Alf Rivett's crew 9-8. Other Rotary slaughter was brought about when Pat Deane's rink (top right) clobbered novice Joe Scott and his gang 12-5. Gyro wins chalked up with divine aid, were attained by Lom Dominato (bottom left) who trimmed Bert Field 8-5 and Bill Lambie (bottom right) who edged Jack Martin 9-8.

Dutchies down touring Russians on strong fore-checking game

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen scored an 8-4 victory over the touring Moscow Selects Sunday in the first of a 10-game tour for the Russian club.

The Dutchmen came on strong in the second and third periods, forechecking the Russian team back into their own end, to score the win.

The Russians took a 3-2 lead in the first period, during which time the Dutchies, who will represent Canada at the Olympic Games in Squaw Valley next month, showed a reluctance to do the type of solid checking that was needed to keep the Russians at bay.

Don Rope paced the K-W attack with two goals. Ken Laufman, Murray Davison, Cliff Pennington, Butch Martin, Bob Forhan and Gary Sharpe added the others.

The Moscow goals were scored by Igor Devonskiy, a forward who played well for the losers and tallied two markers, Edward Ivanov, a defenceman, and forward Boris Maiorov.

RUSSIANS OUTSHOT

The Dutchies outshot the Selects by a wide 40-18 margin. Vladimir Chinov played a standout game in the Russian nets, but was unable to cope with the Dutchies power in the second and third sessions.

The Dutchmen showed their greatest burst of power in the second period by ramming home three goals in the space of two minutes and 13 seconds. Martin, Forhan and Sharpe were the goal getters during the torrid stretch, which pulled the K-W club from a 4-2 deficit into a 5-4 lead.

The Dutchmen never let up after that adding three more goals in the third period.

Eight minor penalties were called six of them to Kitchener-Waterloo.

Howe's display convincing

The full measure of Gordie Howe's stature as a hockey player and value to the Detroit Red Wings has seldom been more convincingly displayed than it was during the weekend.

He played a major part in two victories that moved the Wings into second place in the National Hockey League and the three goals and two assists he counted gave him a career total of 950 points in regular-season play, the highest mark ever achieved by an NHL player.

Saturday afternoon in Detroit Howe scored one goal and assisted on another despite a clout over the eye as Wings defeated New York Rangers 3-1. Sunday he was even more spectacular, scoring two goals and setting up a third in a 4-3 win on home-ice over Toronto Maple Leafs.

TOPS RICHARD

The man who held the record —946 points—until Saturday—the old master Maurice Richard —was unable to pick up a single point in Montreal Canadiens' double win over Boston Bruins, 8-2 Saturday and 3-1 Sunday.

Last-place New York Rangers lost 3-1 in Toronto Saturday and 3-1 to the Hawks in Chicago Sunday.

Saturday Gary Aldcorn scored a first-period goal. Howe, despite a cut over his right eye suffered when he was ridden into a goal-post, assisted on Alex Delvecchio's second-period goal that put Detroit ahead 2-0, and then scored the clincher. Murray Balfour got the only Chicago goal.

WINNING MARKER

Sunday night the Leafs and Wings were tied 3-3 at 18:11 of the final period when, with Detroit swarming all over Toronto netminder Johnny Bower, Howe picked up a rebound and knocked in the winning goal.

In the second period he got Wings' first goal after they were down 2-0 and he assisted on Delvecchio's goal. Winger Johnny McKenzie got the other.

The goals were Howe's 20th and 21st this season.

Dick Duff and Bob Pulford tallied in the first and in the second Billy Harris scored unassisted for Toronto.

Among the capacity crowd of 14,357 that jammed Detroit Olympia was world heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson, watching his first NHL game.

Montreal's two victories snapped Bruins' four-game winning streak and the 8-2 trouncing Saturday was a humbling experience for Bruins netminder Don Simmons who had racked up two consecutive shutouts.

The game was billed as the first battle of masked netminders since Simmons has followed the example of Montreal's Jacques Plante.

Phil Goyette, Canadiens' hard-working centre, scored three times to bring his season-total to 12, the highest of his career. The other Montreal marksmen were Jean Beliveau with two, Ab McDonald, Dickie Moore and Don Marshall.

Guy Gendron scored Bruins' first goal and Bronco Horvath got the other.

The game was enlivened by three small battles in the third. Bruins Leo Labine had a hand in two of them.

Sunday Canadiens' defensive corps gave Plante superb protection and rearguard Tom Johnson scored the final Canadiens goal. The other two were by Henri Richard and Bernie Geoffrion while Bob Armstrong got Bruins' marker.

New York's two losses could once again be laid at the door of their inept efforts to protect goalie Lorne (Gump) Worsley. Saturday night only his brilliant 32-save work kept the score down.

Worsley was beaten by Harris and Gerry Ehman in the first period but kicked out 15 shots in the second and Andy Hebenton made it 2-1 in the third. Then Worsley was taken off at 18:20 and Pulford scored into the empty net.

Sunday the weary Worsley stopped 45 shots including an incredible 25 in the first period. But the Hawk youth movement —Murray Balfour, Red Hay and Bobby Hull were too much for him as they scored the three Chicago goals. Once again Hebenton scored for New York.

Montreal has a 14-point lead over the second-place Wings who lead Toronto by one. Boston is seven points back and one ahead of the Hawks.

Moscow names pucksters

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio announced Saturday that 18 players, including 11 members of last year's national team, have been named to represent Russia in the Olympic hockey competition at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The all-Moscow team includes half a dozen members of the team that toured Canada two years ago and three of the men who helped Russia defeat Toronto East York for the world title at Stockholm in 1954, the first year a Soviet team entered international competition.

The seven-year men are goalie Bikolai Puchkov and defencemen Nikolai Sologubov and Dimitri Ukolov. Puchkov, 29, was voted the best goaltender of last year's world tournament at Prague, when the Russians finished second to Canada.

Other members of last year's team named to the squad are reserve goaltender Eugeny Erkin, defenceman Genrich Sidorenkov and forwards Veniamin Alexandrov, Viktor Yakushev, Eugeny Groshev, Nikolai Snetkov and Viktor Pryazhnikov. Another forward, Konstantin Loktev, played in the 1958 championships but missed last year's tournament because of illness.

The players who tourned Canada in 1958 are Puchkov, Sologubov, Ukolov, Sidorenkov, Alexandrov and Loktev.

The broadcast said the team may be augmented by two or three members of a team now touring Canada.
