BRIGHT, SUNNY FUNCTION

J. Facey WA holds successful tea, sale

Brilliant sunshine filled the Joyce M. Facey United hall on February 24 when the Women's association held a successful afternoon tea and sale.

Receiving the guests in the hall decorated in spring colors was WA president Mrs. R. H. Larson who also assisted as cashier.

Mrs. Charles Roberts was tea convener and tea table centrepieces of tiny ornamental pastel toned floral buds were arranged by decoration convener Mrs. Louis Zurek.

Serviteurs were Mrs. John Wyllie, Mrs. Alex Slater and Mrs. A. R. Lockwood.

Directing the kitchen were Mrs. Clyde Smith and Mrs. O. F. Symes.

In charge of the home-baking table were Mrs. Marcel Girardet and Mrs. J. P. Thompson.

The sewing table was attended by Mrs. R. A. Linton and Mrs. A. J. Bussanich.

Mrs. Arthur Oswald and members of the Explorers attended the candy stall.

The enjoyable function realized the sum of more than $80 to be used for the hall.
