SALVATION ARMY MOURNS ITS GREAT LEADER

G.T.P. OFFICIALS ARRIVE: BAYLEY BEATS SCOTT: LOCAL NEWS: PANAMA PROBLEM: VISITORS

PRESIDENT E. J. CHAMBERLIN PAYS HIS FIRST OFFICIAL VISIT TO PRINCE RUPERT

Refers Not to Receive Any Formal Civic Welcome in His Lately Assumed New Responsibility, But Promises to Dine With the Mayor Tonight When Matters of Municipal Importance in Connection With the Grand Trunk Pacific Development Will be Discussed

A large crowd of citizens were assembled on the wharf this morning, including Mayor New-son and the members of the City Council, to welcome the arrival of the steamer Prince George with the new president of the G. T. P. and his party on board.

Presidential Party.
Captain McKenzie brought off starboard land in fine style, making one think it was the Prince Rupert with Captain Bar-ry Johnston at the helm that was arriving. The presidential party, who were to be seen stand- ing on the captain's bridge as the boat pulled in, consisted of A. W.

Smithers, chairman of the Lon- don board of directors; E. J. Chamberlin, president of the road; W. P. Hinton, general pas- senger agent; Captain C. H. Nicholson, superintendent of the steamship lines; Mr. Dewey, Mr. Donaldson, Mr. Deer, Dr. J. Hutchinson, Mr. Kinsella, Mr. W. Smithers and a number of others accompanying the presidential party.

Desired No Reception.
It was the intention of the Mayor and Council to present a short address of welcome, setting forth the pleasure of the citizens at receiving the new president of the great railroad on his first visit in that official capacity. The president rather threw a damper upon this proceeding by stating emphatically that he did not wish any official reception and had not the time at his disposal for an interview of any kind.

Mayor Invited to Dine.
He, however, extended on in- vitation to the Mayor to meet him at dinner this evening, which, it is understood, has been accepted. The party of officials spent the morning in taking a trip around the harbor in the quarantine launch Evelyn and viewing the progress of the railway work in the city.

BAYLEY KNOCKS PAT SCOTT OUT IN THE SIXTH

ORCHESTRA FOR THE NEW OPERA HOUSE

It will be welcome news to the amusement loving public of Prince Rupert to learn that the popular Westholme Opera House has made arrangements to add to the attractions of the house by providing a permanent orchestra. Mr. George Werner, than whom there is no finer pianist on the Pacific coast, will be assisted this evening and at all future per- formances by two well known musicians, members of the Mu- sicians' Union of Vancouver. Mr. E. Stillwell, who is a trap drum- mer of the first order, accom- panied by his wife and Mr. A. Prescott, said to be a fine violin- ist, arrived on the Prince George this morning to start work at the Westholme Opera House. They were accorded quite a send-off upon leaving Vancouver by the Musicians' Union, a full band being there to bid them farewell.

LABOR TROUBLE HAS BEEN SPREADING

(Special to Daily News.)
Ottawa, Aug. 21. — Industrial conditions were seriously dis- turbed by labor disputes during July, the number in existence that month being considerably greater than the number existing in June.

BOARD OF TRADE NEW PUBLICITY BOOKLET ISSUED

Today sees the publication from The Daily News office of the official publicity book- let for Prince Rupert of the Board of Trade. The pub- lication is a 32-page book- let lavishly illustrated and showing at a glance the de- velopment of Prince Rupert from the pioneer days to the present. This, the latest publicity book for the city, is entirely produced in Prince Rupert and in itself reveals the perfection to which the printing art in the city has been brought.

WORLD-FAMOUS EVANGELIST PASSES AWAY RIPE IN YEARS GENERAL BOOTH IS DEAD

Founder of Widespread Religious Organization Started in a Humble Alley, Dies Near London at the Age of Eighty-Three After a Life of Tireless Activity Leading the Warfare of His Salvation Army Against Evil---History of the Work--Who Will be General's Successor?

(Special to Daily News.)
London, Aug. 21. — General Booth died today at his residence, "The Rockstone," Hadley Wood, eight miles from London. He was born at Nottingham in 1829. The veteran Salvation Army leader lay unconscious for forty-eight hours before his death. The medical bulletins had not revealed seri- ousness in the General's condition, which for a week, it is now admitted, was hopeless. Interest now centres in Booth's successor, it being generally be- lieved that his son, Bramwell Booth, will follow his father. Under the constitution of the army, the general nominated his successor, several years ago placing the name in a sealed en- velope, which he deposited with the army's lawyers. The date of the burial is not yet decided.

The Rev. William Booth, founder and head of the Salva- tion Army, was born at Notting- ham, April 10th, 1829, and edu- cated at a private school in that town. He studied theology with

WORTHY SON OF A WORTHY FATHER

Alderman Douglas was down at the wharf early this morning to welcome the Prince George, both in his aldermanic capacity as one of the leading members of the City Council to receive the G. T. P. officials and as the glad father to welcome to Prince Rupert his clever and accomplished son, Professor Milton Douglas, pro- fessor of music and dancing with a well known academy established in the city of Seattle. Professor Douglas, who is also a pioneer of this northern country, having been in Dawson away back in 1901, has come to Prince Rupert at this particular juncture to take in hand the training of a num- ber of children in Scotch and other dances to take part in an entertainment to take place at the forthcoming visit of the Gov- ernor General.

Warren Kelly of the Union Transfer Co., returned to the city on the Prince George this morn- ing.

H. N. Boss, the well known mining and timber man, was an arrival on the Prince George this morning.

OVERSEAS CLUB MEMBERS RALLY TO PREPARE PLANS FOR WELCOME TO CONNAUGHT

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Overseas Club was held in the Sibbald Hall on Second ave- nue last evening. The object of the meeting was twofold—to dis- cuss the question of an address of welcome to be presented to H. R. H. the Governor General upon his approaching visit here and to welcome and listen to a short address by Mr. DeB. Hovell, loyal and enthusiastic supporter of the Imperialistic idea. Alderman Bullock-Webster, the president of the local club, pre- sided in his usual able and urbane fashion, stating the object of the meeting and welcoming the visit- ing brother and the other local gentlemen who had very kindly consented to be present and ad-
