Valiant sales take big jump

TORONTO—The Valiant from Chrysler Canada Ltd. is Canada's best-selling compact car, based on registrations for the first four months of the current model year, it was announced today by C. O. Hurley, vice-president, sales.

The October-January registrations of Valiant, totalling 6,402 units, are 89 per cent ahead of the comparable 1962 four-month total of 3,391 units.

In the Canadian compact passenger car field, this is how the 1963 model year registrations stood at the end of January; according to R. L. Polk and Co. (Canada) Ltd. of Toronto, automotive statistical publisher.

Valiant, 6,402 units; Chevy II, 5,938 units; Rambler (American and Classic) 5,372 units; Acadian, 4,746 units; Falcon, 3,785 units; Comet, 3,188 units; Corvair, 2,108 units.

"The 1963 Valiant has received tremendous acceptance right from its introduction in October, and the demand for the new Valiant convertible, introduced in late November, has been beyond all expectations," Mr. Hurly sad.

The daly producton volume of convertibles on the Chrysler Canad Ltd. lines in Windsor has been increased from an original two-per-day to 20-per-day.

Truly - a most travelled rum!

Mr. Lemon Hart's rums travel for a reason. Made in the heart of the West Indies they are then sent to England because the moist airs of England are traditionally the finest in the world for maturing rums. After quiet years in England they are perfectly blended, bottled and shipped to Canada and throughout the world.
