G & A wins initial game

Late inning rally downs Esquires 8-6

Senior Baseball League's Gordon and Anderson came through with their first win of the 1960 season last night but picked a hard way to do it.

The G & A crew, winless in their first three games, edged Esquires 8-6 at Roosevelt Park but had to score a three run rally in the late innings in order to gain the victory.

The hardware squad opened the first inning with a bang as they rapped Esquire chucker Doug Ruttan for three hits and an equal number of runs.

A walk, singles by Rey McKay and Darrel Young loaded the bases. Left fielder Gordy Cameron banged a two run single to right field while Young scored on an overthrow.

Esquires came back with one in the bottom of the inning as Neil McDonald scored on a fielder's choice.

The clothiers took a commanding lead in the bottom of the second when they garnered five big runs.

Ray Spring singled, Roger Webber walked and Ruttan loaded the bases when he was hit by a pitched ball. Don Scherk stepped to the plate and drove a double to centre field, scoring two runs.

Stocky centre-fielder McDonald leaned into a one and one count and smashed a home run over the right field fence to put Esquires into a 6-3 lead.

G & A added three more runs in the fifth inning when Esquires' Ruttan showed obvious control trouble. He walked Ron Ciccone, McKay and Bill Sunberg to load the bases. Young took his stance at the plate and lined a long single to centre field to score two runs. Ruttan allowed another runner to score as he walked in a run after the bases were again loaded, to tie the game at 6-6.

G & A came through with the winning runs in the sixth inning.

Ciccone singled and went to third on McKay's single. Speedy third baseman, Ciccone, raced home when Sunberg was thrown out at first.

The hardwaremen's insurance marker was added when Young chopped a bouncer to Don Scherk who threw high in an attempted cutoff at the plate.

Esquires attempted a rally in the bottom of the seventh but G & A hurler Len Shankel bore down and struck out the last two men to face him.

In winning Shankel, held the powerful Esquires to six hits in registering his first win of the season. He allowed only three bases on balls while striking out 10.

Loser, Ruttan also was touched for six hits but gave up nine walks. He struck out five.

Top batters of the evening were Spring, McKay, and Young with two singles each and McDonald with his four-base blow.

Emery wins

SHERBROOKE, Que. (CP)—Burke Emery of Sherbrooke, the newly-crowned Canadian light-heavyweight champion, Thursday night knocked out Hank Mercer of Valdosta, Ga., in the sixth round of their scheduled 10-round non-title fight. Emery weighed 169 pounds, Mercer 171.

Wahls increase lead after 21-17 victory

Wahls of the Women's Softball League made it five straight wins last night as they downed Prince Rupert Senior High School 21-17 at Gyro Park.

The victory puts Wahls into a three-game lead over second place Fashion Footwear and Savoy Hotel and drops the scholars deeper into the cellar—four games behind the leaders.

Standings

	W.	L	Pct.	GBL
Wahls	5	0	1.000	-
Fashion	2	3	.400	3
Savoy	1	2	.333	3
PRSHS	1	4	.200	4

High school were clobbered 26-7 by Fashion Wednesday.

PRSHS made a determined bid to halt the boatyarders' streak as they climbed into a 15-8 lead after five innings of play when they scored nine runs in the fifth.

However, Wahls ignored the margin and proceeded to add six runs in the fifth, four in the sixth, and three in the seventh.

The stunned scholars could only manage two runs in the sixth.

PRSHS's Leona Colussi was charged with the loss as she allowed 28 hits, walked three and struck out none.

Wahl's pitchers, Pearl Morberg and Carol White gave up 24 hits, walked four and fanned one.

Suds top Bees but remain tied for third

The Seattle Rainiers travelled from the ridiculous to the sublime Thursday night, but even after their ramblings were complete they were still tied with Tacoma for third place in the Pacific Coast League.

Wednesday night the Suds bashed 24 hits in trouncing Salt Lake City 22-12. Thursday night Seattle got only two hits, and whipped the Bees 1-0 in a cliff-hanger that had the Salt Lake City peanut vendors nervously hamping their own wares, to the bitter end.

Tacoma's Giants, meanwhile, gave Eddie Fisher free rein and the big righthander seven-hit Vancouver for a 6-0 victory, his third whitewash job of the campaign.

Sacramento's league-leading Solons and the runnerup Spokane Indians both won, Sacramento beating the Portland Beavers 9-1, and Spokane handing the Padres of San Diego their ninth straight defeat, 6-3.

Lou Skizas was the one who spoiled the two-hit pitching job turned in by Salt Lake City's Don Gross, the starter, and Art Swanson, who came in with one out in the ninth. Skias tripled and scored the game's lone run on a sacrifice fly. Hal Bevan's single was the only other Seattle hit.

The Giants got all the runs they needed, three, in the third inning on three singles and Dusty Rhodes' double. The veteran Rhodes got three hits in four trips, driving in one run and scoring one himself. Fisher struck out six and walked two in running his record to 6-5.

Cuno Barragan kept his hot hitting streak going in the Sacramento decision over the Beavers, belting out a solo homer and a single in three trips. The Solons pushed across five runs in the sixth on three doubles, a pair of singles and an error.

Knudsen leads tourney, optimistic of chances

RIDGEWAY, Ont. (CP)—George Knudson, 22-year-old professional at Toronto Oakdale, is optimistic about winning his first Ontario open golf championship because 'my game right now is pretty consistent."

Knudson's game was just about perfect Thursday as he fired a three-under-par 69 to take a one-stroke lead into today's second round of the $5,000, 72-hole tournament.

Knudson, 1955 Canadian junior champion formerly of Winnipeg, was among three golfers in the field of 134 to break par over the par-72 Cherry Hill Club course near this town 15 miles south of Niagara Falls, Ont.

Pressing at 70 was Rudy Horvath, 37-year-old pro from Windsor, Ont., who won the event in 1954.

Two strokes back at 71 was the surprise of the opening round, Joe Purcell Jr., a little-known 18-year-old amateur from Hamburg, N.Y.
