The Husband Is Cook

A young man who has quite a reputation as a cock has married recently. His wife spent all her time since school days in an office and according to her letter knows little of cooking. She says that given a can of Pacific Milk and a bag of flour her husband seems able to turn out almost anything. "I am learning from him," she says. It is unusual, isn't it?

General Manager Mercury Mills Is Appointed

Increased Business Reported and Factory is Working Overtime

R. H. Hemmel has recently been appointed vice-president and general manager of Mercury Mills Limited of Hamilton. He was for many years chief executive of two large chain store organizations.

Mercury Mills Limited report a decided increase in business as compared with the corresponding period of last year, shipments of men's and women's hosiery alone being up forty percent. Five departments are now working overtime—fifty additional employees have been taken on in the past month and the payroll has increase by twenty percent.

Mercury Mills Limited recently secured the largest single order ever placed in Canada for full-fashioned hosiery. It was for one million pairs.
