CURE FOR THE BLUES IS "OH LADY LADY!"

Musical Comedy Made into Film Picture to be Shown Tonight

A "sure cure for the blues"; a "laughing lozenge"; "a capsule of comicality"—any one of these terms might well be applied to "Oh Lady Lady," the new comedy drama which opens at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

The vivacious Miss Bebe Daniels scores a real hit in the leading role of this musical comedy in its new film form. Deliciously amusing is her interpretation of the gawky country girl who, grown into a famous actress, most unwittingly causes consternation in the heart of a one-time lover who senses breach of promise suits, jail, etc.! It can be imagined that Walter Hiers in the latter role carries the laughs along in the uproarious manner always expected of this very popular and rotund young man.

ETHEL CLAYTON AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Ethel Clayton's latest picture, "The Thirteenth Commandment," will be shown at the Empress Theatre tonight. The story was adapted from Rupert Hughes' magazine serial and novel of the same name. Daphne Kip, the central figure, is a girl in a middle western city who has always been given all she wanted by a father who is hardly qualified financially to give it. She becomes engaged to a young New Yorker, who, from the money he spends on her, is apparently very rich. On her trip to the metropolis to purchase her trousseau, she discovers that Wimborn, her fiance, is really a poor man, but, like her father, is going into debt to satisfy her unreasonable demands.

As if to confirm this impression, she comes upon her newly married brother and his extravagant wife, Leila, in a row over money matters. She determines no longer to be a parasite, breaks her engagement, and, after an unsuccessful experience on the stage, starts a little shop that makes her financially independent.

STAG PARTY TO JAP INLET

Visit Made to North End of Porcher Island by the Launch Harla.

Yesterday a small stag party visited Jap Inlet to see the herring pound which has been established there by the N. M. & R. Fish Co., managed by Wilfrid McDonald. They were taken in George Bryant's fine launch Harla with Joe Howe as pilot.

Leo Waugh got up the party and proved an excellent host and also a most capable cook, the manner in which he was able to dish up smoking Boston beans and fried Terrace eggs proving indisputably that he was a past master at the art. Lunch was served on board at the inlet.

Capt. McGregor of the fishing boat N. M. & R. Number 1, and his crew were also entertained after dinner. The Captain showed that while he may be an excellent fisherman and heroic soldier, he was not an expert at baseball.

Pilot Howe gave the party a number of thrills by seeing how close he could drive the launch to sunken logs, but there were no casualties and the party arrived home safely in time for dinner.

It was found that the herring pound contained something like 175 tons of bait and that while there was no run on just at that time another was expected in the near future. The pound is made of nets anchored to the bottom and keeping the herring alive. Those on the party were Leo Waugh, Wilfrid McDonald, Geo. McDonald, George Bryant and Jimmie, Joe Howe, H. F. Pullen, Harry McLeod, E. Unwin and Jennings.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:—

SEATTLE has been having a pretty ankle contest and the prudes of the city have been up in arms over it.

• • •

If there is anything more immodest about an ankle than about a face, I should like to know it. For my own part I like to see a pretty ankle.

• • •

POSSIBLY the protest came from those whose ankles were not shapely enough to admit them to the contest.

• • •

THE advantage of an ankle exhibit over a pretty girl exhibit is that the ankle does not present such good opportunities for makeup as does the face.

• • •

MANY stenographers and other lady employees, it is said, have been chosen because of their pretty faces. Now one of the qualifications in Seattle will probably be a pretty ankle.

• • •

THE Dempsey-Carpentier press agent is doing good work. There is scarcely a day but a story in regard to the proposed big fight comes over the wire and the newspapers pay for it.

• • •

R. J. CROMIE, publisher of the Sun, complains to the Government because he has to pay six and a half cents a pound for his newsprint. Yet the publisher of the Prince Rupert Daily News says he has to pay over ten cents a pound.

Barber: "Your hair is getting gray, sir."

Customer: "Well, I'm not surprised. Hurry up!"

PROPOSED NEW PLAY GROUNDS

Suggested Site is Corner of McBride and Sixth Avenue.

It has been suggested that a football ground be made at the corner of McBride and Sixth Street large enough to accommodate any of the big games.

The city is at present clearing one of the corners for a playground for the youngsters. It has been well drained and levelled and will soon be first rate for the purpose. It is not, however, large enough for the grown-ups to use. The proposal is to make it four times as large by clearing the other corners and then divert McBride Street to make it go around the playground. With both McBride and Sixth Avenues over ninety feet wide, the playground would be large enough to use for matches of any kind, and it would be free from rocks so that football, either rugby or association, could be played there with safety. It may not be so suitable for baseball because of the possible danger of the ball being struck beyond the grounds into the surrounding houses.
