SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

Affair at Baptist Church Last Night Was Best on Record

The Baptist Church Sunday School Christmas entertainment which took place last evening in the church auditorium was the finest and most enjoyable affair of its kind yet held. Some 150 persons including many children were in attendance.

Rev. J. J. Smithson opened the proceedings with prayer and P. H. Linzey, Sunday School superintendent, who presided, gave a report of the year's work. This report showed an average attendance of 69 with a total enrolment of 125 and the largest attendance at any session during the year 114.

A dialogue "Wishes" by Mrs. B. M. Newell's class was the first number on the program. Betty Smithson gave a recitation and a violin solo by William Murray, jr. followed after which there was a recitation by Kilby Lamb. A quartette made up of Nessie Smithson, Catherine Mussallem, Betty Smithson, and Mabel Ivarson from the Busy Bee Club rendered the "Alphabet Hymn." A dialogue "Mr. Grocery Man," by Adelia Thurber and Douglas Smithson followed. The year's Golden Texts were repeated by four scholars—Kenny Green, Ralph Johnson, Catherine Mussallem and Nessie Smithson. A dialogue "The Post Card Boys" by Mr. Linzey's class was followed with recitations by Nessie Smithson and Tommy Johnson. The concluding number, a dialogue chorus "Bethlehem Star" by Mrs. S. Hamblin's class was perhaps the most effective item of the entire program. Beautifully costumed representing stars, several girls took part around the centre "Bethlehem Star" taken by Joan Arthur.

Presentation of prizes for scripture reading and regular attendance was made by Mrs. S. Dawson. The thirteen scholars receiving book prizes in the former department were Catherine Mussallem, Nessie Smithson, Kenny Green, Ralph Johnson, Betty Smithson, Billy Elkins, Bessie Derry, Joan Arthur, Sid Elkins, Wadea Mussallem, William Murray, Enyde Morris and Mabel Ivarson. Awards for regular attendance were made to Bishop Thurber, Ralph Johnson, Catherine Mussallem, Tommy Johnson and Kenny Green.

Santa Claus arrived on the scene and distributed candy to the children before the gathering dispersed.

Miss Dawson was convener of the committee responsible for the affair and the accompanists of the evening were Miss Lemon and A. L. Box.

The new fishing steamer G. H. Hughes is reported to be a complete wreck on Secretary Point, Hope Island. The accident happened on December 24, when she ran ashore having sailed from Vancouver two days before. The cause of the wreck was due to the fact that her engines broke down in the heavy seas encountered.
