ALLOWANCE GRANTED BY EDMONTON COURT

R. A. McKinnon Has to Pay Wife $100 a Month and also to Pay Back Debts

EDMONTON, Nov. 28. — A maintenance allowance of $100 per month was granted Mrs. Isabella Margaret McKinnon as a result of her supreme court civil action brought against her husband Robert Allan McKinnon, tried before Mr. Justice Walsh. Judgment was also granted her for $4,000, the amount of a loan made to her husband in 1911 for the carrying on of a live-stock business.

The living allowance fixed for her and the two children was to date from June 8th last, $500 to be paid now and $100 monthly and to be charged up out of such funds as may be available in court. Some mention was made of the possibility of the $4,000 claim having to rank alongside other creditors' claims but owing to the peculiar nature of the trial in that the defendant had been represented by counsel but not present in court nor represented at the trial, his lordship ordered that notice should be given to the defendant's solicitors before any payments are made.

Money in Court

Some $7,200 was said to be standing in court at present as a result of an injunction having been issued against the city in regard to payments for certain lots near Norwood Boulevard and sold by McKinnon to the city. These lots had been part of the Roland estate and the maiden name of Mrs. McKinnon was Roland.

Mrs. McKinnon was the only witness to take the stand and she stated that her husband had been rooming in city hotels for the past two years, spending part of his time out of the city. Since shortly previous to the beginning of this action, he had seldom visited his home. She estimated his earning capacity at $300 per month, intimated that he was a free spender but for some months she had been short of cash for household needs.

LIFE WAS SAVED BY ACTION OF TWO DOGS

THE DALLES, Oregon, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Ruby Pettis, 53, who lives on a ranch at Sherar Bridge, near here, told in a hospital here how her life had been saved by her two dogs, Jack and Pup. While driving a loaded wagon recently, the wagon turned over, pinning her beneath the load.

Sagacity of the dogs in digging a hole under her head and upper part of her body enabled her to breathe, she said. She was unable to extricate herself, and was a prisoner for fifteen hours, when a ranch hand heard the barking of the dogs and rescued her.

DOWN TRODDEN WORKER IS HAVING HIS INNING

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. — Declaring that "the down-trodden working man is having his inning in New York," the Wall Street Journal says:

"We know of the bricklayer who wears a topper at work, and everybody in the building trade had his tinned music, wireless and automobiles. Now we learn of a $135 a week plasterer, who has bought his wife a $900 seal coat at a leading Fifth Avenue department store.

"Now we know why it is fashionable for those who form the so-called upper-crust of society to sport their old clothes."

CORNER ON EGGS

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Charging Chicago egg dealers with an attempt to corner the egg market and force the price to a dollar a dozen, Joseph Rushkewicz, secertary of the Council high cost committee, has ordered an official investigation.

"More than 1,200,000 cases of eggs are in storage here," he said, "and the city used only about 10,000 cases a day. Eggs being sold at 80 cent a dozen now were put in storage last spring at 20 to 25 cents."

PROTECTION AGAINST BEAUTY DOCTORS IS LATEST SUGGESTION

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The National Permanent Wavers' Association, Inc., has launched a campaign for the purpose of "protecting the public against incompetent operators and hairdressers." Efforts are to be made in Albany to have the Legislature for permanent wavers to pass a satisfactory examination before being permitted to practice their art. The proportion of incompetent or unprincipled beauty doctors is about 35 per cent., according to an official of the Association, who said New York was a city of women with hair as straight as a poker."

HIGH PRICES SECURED FOR OLD MANUSCRIPTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Manuscripts and books by Joseph Conrad, the English novelist composing part of the library of John Quinn, New York lawyer, were sold at a recent auction here for $110,998.

The original autograph manuscript of "Victory," written on 1,139 pages, folio, caused the sharpest bidding, and was finally sold for $8,100, the highest price of the sale. The original autograph manuscript of "Under Western Eyes," written on 1351 pages, quarto, also keenly competed for, brought $6,900.
