SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

The M.V. Einstoss 15 arrived in port from Alaska yesterday morning with two cars of frozen salmon and one of mild cured for shipment over the Canadian National line to the Eastern States. The M.V. Dagney, which came in from Ketchikan late last night, had four cars of canned salmon on board for shipment by rail to points in the Eastern States.

C.N. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. E. B. Caldwell commanding arrived in port at noon yesterday with a capacity list of passengers including 40 members of the United Kingdom Timber Commission who disembarked here. The Prince Rupert sailed at 1 a.m. for Ketchikan, returning here tonight southbound.

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

September 11, 1922

The city council decided to turn over to the hospital board a grant of $5,272, this being half the amount of liquor profits coming to the city from the provincial government.

The Northern B.C. Fur Traders' Association was formed at a meeting in the city. Members came from the whole district. Initial president was R. Boyd Young of Port Simpson. Vice-president was W. J. O'Neill of Smithers and secretary-treasurer was W. G. Mennie of Hazelton.

The Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. shipped 160,000,000 pounds of fresh fish over the Grand Trunk Railway during its first eight years of operation, T. H. Johnson, company manager, said at a Rotary Club meeting.

September 11, 1912

The sale of government lots in the townsite concluded this afternoon. High values were set in the prices, and the aggregate ran over the million and a half mark. Bidding was keen throughout.

Dr. J. O. Reddie, the pioneer physician of Prince Rupert, passed away after a long fight against a serious internal disease.

R. A. Renwick, deputy minister of lands for the provincial government, ad Mrs. Renwick, were visitors in the city.

The civic finance committee, after much labor, presented its estimates for the year. The tax rate was to be 20½ mills on the dollar. The electric light department was to cost $85,210 and the public works $50,000.

Rev. Canon Joselyn Perkins of Westminster Abbey, London, was in the city, a guest of Bishop and Mrs. F. H. Du Vernet. He was sacrist of the Abbey and, as such, had charge of all eclesiastical details in connection with the coronation of King George V and Queen Mary.

PRESS FREEDOM ASSURED

In Sweden the law of freedom of the press is part of the constitution.

SEES MORE INDUSTRIES

W. J. Alder, city commissioner for Prince Rupert from 1933 to 1940, who arrived from his home in Victoria yesterday, feels that the establishment of the Celanese Corporation's mill on Watson Island will be the spearhead of progress in Prince Rupert and will no doubt attract other industries to the area assuring a steadily prosperous future to the district.

Mr. Alder still has business interests in the city and is a frequent visitor here. It is 38 years, he recalled, since he made his first trip to Prince Rupert. Most of his life he has been interested in real estate and it was he who built the first house in the city after the sale of lots. The house is still there just across Third Avenue from the News building. The Alder Block on the corner of Third Avenue and Sixth Street was erected in 1909 and was one of the first commercial buildings to be completed.

Mr. Alder will remain in Prince Rupert for a week during which time he hopes to make a trip over the highway.

Though many European luxury spots, frequented by the wealthy before the war, have either disappeared or do not offer the splendor of former years, the floating palaces, ocean liners, have not changed. Tourists still can command all the service and ease they ever could.
