The Good Luck Star, Thomas Meighan, in

"WOMAN PROOF"

Do you know what "woman-proof" means? Know what a "zipper" is? Ever hear of marriage-by-radio? Of course not! George Ade, America's leading humorist and professor of slangology, created them all for "Woman-Proof," a brand new idea in stories with Tommy Meighan in a new kind of role. Yes, it's true. Tommy's absolutely woman-proof in this picture. That is-er-well, it must have a happy ending, but there's many a solid laugh, many a clever twist and heart-clutching situation before he is finally captured. Imagine Tommy immune to love germs with Lila Lee as the girl. Breezy fun. Sharp satire. Wholesome entertainment. Ade's best story. Tommy's finest role. It's the bee's knees.

Some folks don't get all the wear-worth out of a suit that is possible in the opinion of Dainty Dorothy.

There are some men and women of her acquaintance she says are very neglectful when it comes to taking an inventory of their wardrobes.

She believes that our cleaning is one of the biggest home saving helps ever established.

You'll be inclined to agree with her after you investigate our worth.

NATIVE ALASKA GIRL SHOOTS HERSELF WITH A TWENTY-TWO RIFLE

KETCHIKAN, Sept. 27.—Emma Marks, a native girl residing in Saxman, shot and fatally wounded herself a short while after three this morning, in her home at Saxman, and died at 9.35 a.m. With her in the room at the time of the shooting were her brother and sister and another man.

A coroner's jury, accompanied by Deputy Marshall R. H. Humber, and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney H. D. Stabler, went to Saxman on the Confidence but no motive for the shooting was established.

Witnesses of the affair say that Emma borrowed a .32-caliber automatic pistol belonging to her father at about ten o'clock last night to carry with her while making a trip to town. She returned home a few minutes before three and after staying in the room for a few moments said "Good-bye" and then shot herself above the right temple, the bullet coming out on the left side of her head. Medical attendance was sought but no effective aid could be rendered, and she died at 9.25 this morning.

The weapon with which she committed the act had but one cartridge in it and no clip. The body was brought to Ketchikan by the coroner's jury.

Miss Adelaide Moss, daughter of the late Sir Charles Moss of Toronto, arrived in the city last Wednesday to assist Dr. Eleanor Lenox in her work among the Japanese of St. Andrew's Japanese mission situated at the corner of Sixth Avenue and Tatlow Street. Miss Moss for some years was a missionary in Japan and intends to return there in a few months when her health permits. In the meantime, she will be of great assistance here both in the kindergarten work and also among the Japanese women including those of Seal Cove.

NEW SCHEDULE OF STEAMERS TEMPORARY

Service Will be Reduced Later to One Boat a Week

The new temporary fall schedule of the Canadian National coast steamers will come into effect next week. It is announced that it will be in force for only about six weeks. Then the service to Vancouver will be reduced as is the custom in winter to one boat a week. It is likely that Stewart and Auyox will then again be served by one of the larger boats and the Prince John will revert to the Queen Charlotte Island run exclusively.

Under the new schedule there will be two sailings a week from and to Vancouver. Arrivals here will be Wednesday afternoons at 1 o'clock and Saturday evenings at eight. Sailings for Vancouver will be at 8 Wednesday night and midnight Saturday. The Prince John will connect with the Wednesday boat for Stewart and Anyox. This vessel will also give a fortnightly service to the Queen Charlotte Islands starting October 4 when it connects with the Saturday boat from the south.

On arrival from the south next Monday, the Prince Rupert will enter dry dock for annual overhaul, and ten days later will relieve the Prince George which will go into dock hre.
