Sword', fair Winds, sunshine provide good sailing for crew

By GLADYS BALDWIN Fair winds and sunshine was the luck of the "Sword" and her crew, skipper N. A. Beketov, District-Marine Agent and first mate Paul Beketov on their holiday cruise down coast. The 19-foot auxiliary sloop, nose into many secluded har-sped of seven knots." bors and coves during her voy- With spinnaker set and a fresh tween on the North Coast but age. Only three hours of rain westerly pushing them along, here's another sailboat enthusibothered them on the whole trip. they were passing Bully Island ast who has been making the Bonilla Island, off the west when they spotted a gaff rigged most of her boat. coast of Banks island was the boat with brown sails. It was the T. A. Haris accompanied his 12 tentative destination of the holi-well-known Cape Elias, sailed by year old son to Lucy Island for day cruisers.

and rain running high, the Edve Pass. "Sword" and crew turned around DEER TRACKS course to White Rock island being caused by a cougar.

SEVEN KNOTS

runs was made between Kitkatla Cove received its name? If so, they glimpsed a huge creature village and Captains Cove on would you kindly contact me at they took to be a whale or blacksparkled when he said they made Avenue East, Prince Rupert.

her red sails flying, poked her the run "under sail alone, at a YACHTSMEN TOO

Mr. Hill of Victoria.

Larsen Harbor. During their Ogden and Chismore Channels tor sailor. second day they spent some time breezes were light and auxiliary. Leaving Prince Rupert harbor at Kitkatla village on Dolphin power was used most of the time. Saturday afternoon, Mr. Harris Island and then ran out through After a night spent at the gov- used power through Metlakatla Beaver Pass between Spicer and ernment wharf at Hunt's Inlet, Pass, hoisted sails once outside McCaulcy islands. Four miles out the sailboat and her crew made and then the wind dropped. past Hankin Rock, with wind for Welcome harbor through He didn't make it to Lucy until and made for a small cove on Descriing their ship, they took are he found. Spicer Island to have lunch. Mr. the trail to Oval Bay on the west | The anchorage, on the north | truck. Rear end weight was balanced by a rope thrown over through a maze of small islands | Somewhere just off the trail either side. between Oval Bay and Welcome | Also using the anchorage Sat-Later, they made another run Harbor, Mr. Beketov says he has urday night was the "Lorna C" a out to Hankin Rock and decided been told "there stands the larg- cabin cruiser and "Little Toot" the trip to Bonilla wasn't for est tree grown on the B.C. coast." a fishing boat. them: By that time, heavy seas. The home-run was a "beautiful" "There's 1 dandy campsite with driven by a northwest 40-mile spinnaker run in full sail" past a beautiful little beach and some-

the hight in a cove with a shivery | The sailors are agreed—it was Harris said. name-Murder Cove on McCau- a swell trip, only thing wrong While on the island they visitwith it—it wasn't long enough! ed the lighthouse and met Mr.

Onc of the most satisfactory. Does anyone know how Murder mother. From the lighthouse Pitt island. Mr. Beketov's eyes 5376 or drop a line to 1467 Sixth fish.

casting. But director Elia Kazan

"But then I reread it and him a nobility and a sense of

"I decided that he should be

"Most of all I wanted a chance

During rehearsal there was an effort by Kazan to needle Plum-

"We swapped notes,"

get us quarreling. We're

HAMLET' NEXT

to work out with Kazan."

says Plummer.

Suboats are few and far be-the weekend in the "Topolo-First night out was spent at On the northerly run through bampo" gall and boomrigged mo-around six o'clock but once there was delighted with the anchor-

Beketov said Banks Island was side of Porcher Island. There on westerly side of the island is a the trailer and held down by several helpers. Truck and trailer planketed in fog and they would two mile stretch of sandy little tricky to get into. A rock were finally reloaded aboard the scow late at night and driver also were capable of sudden and have had to run a compass beach they found tracks of deer sits right in the middle but Rev. Thomas Rudd and Mrs. Rudd of Kansas finally arrived violent surprises. there's picuty of deep water on safely in Ketchikan where Mr. Rudd is minister at the Pentecostal Church of God.

winds were breaking over the Rachel Island and up into Met- one had crected a picnic table beacon on the rock. They spent lakatla Pass.

and Mrs. Glinn and Mrs. Glinn's power all the way in a dead-flat The "Topolobampo" is equipped with a five-and-a-half horse-power Johnson for auxiliary power.

The cruise home was under TRYING OUT THEIR NEW RUNABOUT is Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Stewart and Kevin. Boat is Mr. Stewart's own design and was

HANGING SUSPENDED between scow and shore is the 43-foot narrowly escapes disaster when the scow on which it is being loaded swung with the tide. The trailer was towed ashore by a —Photo by Gladys Baldwin.

built with the help of D. B. Martin. —Photo by Gladys Baldwin. not married

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

The trey was played from the

Two småll diamonds were now queen and jack of clubs. Next.

BLEW TOO LOUD

board and Mr. Muzzy unhesitat-

Mr. Champion had a group of sad choices for his unfortunate as it gave Mr. Muzzy a chance to give the ROME (AP)—Film producer Carlo Ponti has | joined his actress wife, | name value—in order to enable about a year ago. Plummer feels Sofia Loren, in Rome desthat from the start both sensed pite the possibility of a "We always had a little chip bigamy charge against ten of clubs and while this was as good as any, it was the shoulder about each

says law

The Italian producer and the Naples-born film star were married in Mexico by proxy in 1957, Kazan is one of the founders la month after Ponti obtained a Mexican divorce from Giuliana ingly went up with the ace. If he The divorce is not recognized had played low on this trick Miss under Italian law and a tribunal Brash would, have had to use of the Roman Catholic Church black magic to bring home her last week rejected the petition of Ponti's first wife for an annul- optimistically bid slam. At trick two Mr. Muzzy returnment. With an annulment, Ponti and Miss Loren could legalize ed a club and dummy's king won. Miss Brash took three rounds of their wedding.

trumps, ending on the board. The court's decision can '|She then led the queen of diammer and Canadian-born Raycarried to an appellate tribunal. londs, Mr. Muzzy covered with and possibly to the sacred Rotal. the king and the ace won. of the Roman Catholic Church.

Rome lawyers have said recently they do not believe the discarded from dummy on the Switzerland, where he and Miss The long run of "J.B." has Loren have lived since their urned out to be for Plummer marriage. He declined to say feat" in com- anything about her plans. It is mercial theatre and something the couple's first visit to Italy who allowed her son and his of a personal surprise. The actor | since their marriage. Miss Loren describes the drama as "a re- is here to co-star with Clark instruments in her home was mote play, harder in some ways Gable in the film, The Bay of . for me to play than Hamlet." Naples.

contract away at the very first trick. "A very fine catch you made with your ace of clubs, Muz-Champion. the snared from dummy and the deuce from the closed hand. Didn't you ever hear of using an ace to kill Mr. Muzzy a "How did I know, singleton club?" asked Mr. Muzzy l , "She bid no trump, didn't, she?" he growled. "Even she, with the acc of spades and ruff-> worthless singleton in an unbid South dealer Neither side vulnerable NORTH Mr. Abel ♠ K 6 5° ♥ K 1.0 5 4 lined $15 under an anti-noise EAST WEST Mr. Champion ▲ J873 - 🦚 A 8 G 5 . 1004 SOUTH Opening lead: Ten of clubs.

in hor hand," said

plon romarked. Mr. Champion was moan-buit right. The acc of clubs certainly | should have been saved to capture dummy's king. In that case, Miss Brash could have discarded lonly one diamond from dummy land would have had to lose to lolub and a diamond.

Scriptwriter P. Sturges erratic career shows fleeting nature of movie jungle

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The death of Preston |Sturges gives further testimony to the fleeting nature of success in the movie jungle.

When I started on this beat years ago, there was no hot- Doily News Clossified Ads van's Travels, Palm Beach Story, The Lady Eve, Miracle of Morng Hero. As a screen writer he had convinced Paramount to let him di rect McGinty by selling the studio the script for $10. The picure won him an Oscar. His such cess was significant. It helped convince studios to let, other writers such as John Huston, Delmer Daves, Robert Rossen nd Joe Mankiewicz direct.

gan's Creek, Hail The Conquer-

Sturges' films were a delightul blend of literacy and slaptrailer and truck shown above at the Seal Cove air base as it tick. He wrote his scripts with tmost care, dictating to secretaries in the early morning. small caterpillar tractor after being disconnected from the His characters spoke dialogue hat was witty and wise. But they

HOOKED UP WITH HUGHES Sturges' decline started when he left the discipline of the bigstudio operation. He hooked up with another eccentric, Howard Hughes, in an independent company. Their first film was a Harold Lloyd comeback. The Sin of Harold Diddlebock. This typified Sturges' passion for long, unusual titles. One of his ambiwas to name a film "All Waird Up With Nothing to Un-

Diddlebock was not a success it was released years later as Mad Wednesday. Sturges went on to film a period piece, Vendetta, while he and Hughes were having one of their own. Their partnership broke up and four or five other directors tried to finish the film to Hughes' satisfaction. Sturges never recovered his, spark. Darryl Zanuck hired him to pump some life into Betty Grable's sagging career. The result was Beautiful Blonde from Bashful Bend.

Grable was baffled by the director and complained to Zanuck that the "genius" was ruin-would hire him. He went off to Paris and gave biting interviews !. about contempt for the artist in Hollywood.

I saw him again a few years ago at Paramount. He was lunch-

He had been brought back to polish the script of the Mack opening lead in today's deal. He finally decided on the sennett.

Prince Rupert Daily News Tuesday, August 11, 1959

FRED E. DOWDIE OPTOMETRIST Phone 5548

303 - 3rd Ave. W.

TODAY ONLY, 7-8:20 p.m.

WED. and THURS.

1 SHOWING 7:15 ONLY

-WARNER BROS. PRESENT-

BURT LANCASTER

P.m. TOMORROW

the tommy gun to gangland!

'wise birds use Bapco Paint colors!

Gordon's Gordon's Gin, Ice, a slice of Lomon and fill up with Tonic Water.

The ideal drink at any limo.

there's no giv like Gordon's This advertisement is not published by the Liquer Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

Montreal's CBC star refuses Hollywood offers for stage

By WILLIAM GLOVER NEW YORK (A) — Montreal's wanted him for Old Nick. Christopher Plummer, one of Broadway's brightest young found the devil was actually the stars, is giving the movies a best role. MacLeish had given

"I've avoided the Hollywood humor. offers because I want a wide range of stage work," declares played as a cool beatnik, who Plummer, who came here from would apreciate jazz but wouldlong string of successes in n't snap his fingers with the Canadian drama and with the music.

"I would use the films eventually for only one thing—their He and the noted director met further stage work."

Such candor is rare in actors, a conflict of spirit. Plummer talks, however, with the confidence of a man sure on other," says the actor. "When we of himself and his purpose. The 32-year-old Canadian is finally got to work, we were providing one of the theatre both using each other like mad. year's most-praised portrayals, in of the Actor's Studio and a great the prize-winning drama "J.B." His precise voice and saturnine believer in ultra-realistic permanner create a personification formance. Plummer trained of Satan in the poetic fantasy the classic tradition typified by of human tribulation and re- the British stage. demption that poses a paradox. "Really Kazan is as much of At first glance it is a role a classic stylist as I am, ar hard for the audience to accept," I'm as much method as Kazan, identifies with it—or at least understands it best. That's how it has turned out."

mond Massey about each other, A BEAT' JOB so that their on-stage conflict might develop more edge. Massey reliving in modern terms the was cast as the Deity. biblical story of Job. Author, Archibald MacLeish favored such Plummer, "and finally went to 'Kazan and said 'Look, you can't

135 1456 February

WA to UFAWU TOMORROW NIGHT

S.O.N. HALL $50 Jackpot Doorprize . EVERYONE WELCOME

Min J. H. Moore, President Colladin Labatt Limited anmounces the appointment of 1312, F. Lewirne as Prosident of the company's British Columbia subsidiary, Lucky Tainer Browerles Ltd. Mr. Liewarno is also a Vice Predicent of John Labatt Litd., hi charge of the British Columbia Division.

LIFE JACKETS are the fashion for all young boaters. In an attempt to reduce the number of summer drownings, government regulations now call for an approved life preserver for each person in a pleasure craft. These comfortable models in vivid red have fluffy kapec scaled within a "fabrilite" pocket which will keep the children, or adults affect for hours in case of accident. Vinyl fabrics are also proving ideal for boat upholstery since they are very durable and also waterproof.

