VACATIONS MAKE PACKING FUN

EXCITEMENT MOUNTS as Miss Ruth Ramsay, left and Mrs. Will Murdoch pack for their four-month European vacation. Leaving tomorrow by train they will first spend two days visiting Miss Ramsay's parents in Rivers, Manitoba and four days in New York before sailing for Naples. They plan to visit Rome, Venice, Munich, spots in Switzerland, Spain, Portugal and Paris before going to London. While in the UK for three weeks, they will visit Mrs. Murdoch's in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. James Watt, former Prince Rupert residents, now living in Banffshire, Scotland. Returning to Montreal aboard the Saxonia, they will visit relatives in Montreal, Winnipeg and Edmonton before returning home July 24.

Scotland trip occasions many parties

Among the many farewell teas, dinners and social evenings staged for Mrs. W. H. Wilson-Murray during the past few weeks was the delightful afternoon tea held at the home of Mrs. John H. Prithard yesterday afternoon.

On behalf of the guests, who were members of the Burning Bush Guild of the First Presbyterian church, president Mrs. Pritchard presented the guest of honor with a souvenir spoon.

Mrs. Wilson-Murray leaves by plane on Saturday with her mother Mrs. Thomas Peddie to spend a few days at the home of her mother in Vancouver before flying April 8 for Scotland.

In Scotland hse will join her husband in Edinburgh where Mr. and Mrs. Wilson-Murray are taking up permanent residence.

Signal course now on

Eight days of intensive instruction in signaling are being carried out at the armoury by a team from Canadian Army Instructional Staff, B. C. Area, Captain E. T. S. Moore, commanding officer, "D" Company Irish Fusiliers of Canada (Vancouver Regiment) announced today.

Staff Sergeant J. R. Johnson and Sergeants H. R. Knowles and P. A. Knight began classes on March 26 and will continue through until April 3.

This is the first of two parts, the second half of the course to be given sometime in May.

It is designed to qualify unit members attending as infantry signalers in the Canadian Army's Survival role.

Classes are held during the day and every evening and all day Saturday and Sunday.
