Freighter Norman Monarch Arrived Yesterday Afternoon Enroute to Queen Charlotte City

After an uneventful voyage of sixteen days from Mororan, Japan, the Monarch Steamship Co.'s freighter Norman Monarch, Capt. A. W. Kane, arrived in port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and, after passing quarantine and customs and taking on stores here, proceeded early this morning to Queen Charlotte City where she will load one million feet of lumber at the Southern Alberta Lumber Co.'s mill for delivery on the Atlantic coast. The vessel will remain about seven days at Queen Charlotte City and will then sail for Vancouver to complete, leaving that port for Key West and New York. This was the first call of Capt. Kane and his ship to this port. The vessel was on her return to this coast after having taken cargo from Vancouver to Japan.

The Norman Monarch was met and piloted into Prince Rupert harbor by Capt. C. W. Wearmouth of Vancouver who is taking the vessel to Queen Charlotte City and will have charge of her till she arrives in Vancouver. Meeting the vessel here was also Jess Wright of Vancouver, who will superintend the loading at Queen Charlotte City.

Capt. Kane had nothing outstanding to report after the voyage. Speaking of conditions in Yokohama, he stated that there had not been much rebuilding at that port following the disastrous earthquake of a couple of years ago. So far only a few large buildings had yet been erected to replace the many that were razed in the catastrophe. Business was being carried on and people were residing in shacks and huts among the ruins, which by now have been pretty well cleared away.

Is Your Back The Weak Point

Then get your kidneys right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Very few people are in perfect health. There is a weak spot somewhere. When you get tired or your system gets a little run down you feel the effects at your weak spot.

If your weak spot is your back, then you may suspect that your kidneys are not in perfect order. The back aches or is weak and sore; you may have headaches; there will be dryness of the skin, pains in the limbs and disorders of the bladder.

The quickest way to regulate the kidneys is by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are bound to be effective because they arouse the action of the kidneys, liver and bowels and thereby ensure the elimination of poisons from the system.

According to official records of batting in the American League during the 1925 season there was heavier hitting during the year just closed than in 1924. Three teams, Philadelphiia Athletics, Washington Senators and Detroilt Tigers, batted better than .300 whereas .298 was the high mark in 1924. The averages for this season were: Philadelphia, .307; Washington, .303; Detroit, .302; St. Louis, .298; Cleveland, .297; Chicago, .284; New York, .275; Boston, .266.

In spite of the heavy hitting of the teams as a whole, the season's batting champion could not attain .400. That champion, Harry Heilman, right fielder for Detroit, finished up with a terrific batting streak to attain an average of .393. Tris Speaker was second with .389; Al. Simmons, third, .386; and Ty Cobb, fourth, .378. Ruth not only surrendered batting honors but also home run honors which were taken by his team mate, Bob Meusel who made 33 circuit clouts during the season against 25 for Ruth who was tied with K. Williams of St. Louis.

For the third year in succession, the New York Yankees led in team fielding, their percentage being .974—exactly the same as in 1924. Likewise Washington was again second to the Yankees with the same percentage as in 1924—.972. Other teams fielded during the season as follows: Detroit, .972; Chicago, .968; Cleveland, .967; Philadelphia, .966; St. Louis, .964; Boston, .957.

The leading regular fielders for the various positions in the League during the season were: first base, Joe Judge, Washington, .994; second base, Frank O'Rourke, Detroit, .971; third base, Joe Dugan, New York, .969; shortstop, Jack Tavener, Detroit, .968; catcher, Bengough: New York, 993; pitcher, Joe Bush, St. Louis, 1,000. Bob Meusel of New York led the left fielders, Johnny Mostil of Chicago, the centre fielders, and Harry Hooper of Chicago, the right fielders.

Considering the early season onslaughts of the batters, the pitchers held up well throughout the season. Herbert Pennock, the slim left hander of the New York Yankees, was the most effective pitcher in the league during the year. He displaced Walter Johnson the leader of last year who was relegated to third place, Stanley Coveleskie of Washington being second. In the matter of "won" and "lost" credits, honors go to Stanley Coveleskie of Washington with 20 victories and but five defeats during the season. Pennock, being with a losing team, did not register as good as .500 in won and lost, this indicating how little such credits amount to when it comes to actual performance.
