The social calendar for the month of June is filled ments as women of Prince Rupert say good-bye to many residents who are leaving to make their homes in Vancouver.

Mrs. L. S. McGill, who leaves tomorrow aboard the "Canadian Prince" with her daughter Betty has been feted with a round or functions, including dinners, teas, coffee parties and organizational gatherings. Making her home in Vancouver she and Betty join Mr. McGill who left last week to take over his new position as manager of administration for Celgar Limited. Mr. administration manager for Columbia Cellulose Company.

Among the many farewell presentations received by Mrs. Mc-Gill was a leather bound guest book given her by the Girl Guide local association last night for her work as secretary-treasurer.

She is also well-known for, her past work in Parent-Teacher associations and the First United Church.

Mrs. Morris Wayman, wife of Dr. Wayman, who has been technical director for Columbia Cellulose Company leaves within two weeks with her family for Vancouver where Dr. Wayman has been appointed research director of Sandwell International Limited.

Mrs. Wayman, who has been very active in organizational work in the city, is best known for her work in PTAs and the Prince Rupert Concert Society.

A past-president of the Prince Rupert chapter of the Registered Nurses association of British Columbia, Mrs. Eugene Bartlett leaves by car the end of June with her son Michael for Van-
