ONE MAN GOVERNMENT IS THING OF PAST

Premier Oliver Answers Critics by Telling of System of Doing Business of Province

VICTORIA, Oct. 25.—There is no longer any such thing as one-man Government in British Columbia. Premier Oliver emphasized this when he issued the following statement:

"I have noted, according to a Victoria dispatch to a Vancouver morning newspaper, that I have been severely criticized at a meeting of the Victoria Branch of the Retail Merchants' Association for failure to give relief from the burden of the tax on personal property.

"When the deputation representing the Retail Merchants' Association called upon a committee of the Executive Council, composed of the Finance Minister and myself, they were told very distinctly that we were only a committee of the Executive to listen to their representations and to report back to the Executive Council. They were further informed that the Legislature would have to be consulted before any promise of relief could be given. The day of a one-man Government in British Columbia has paseed and I hope forever. I would not think for a moment of ignoring my colleagus of the Legislature on such an important question as this.

"There is no legitimate ground for criticism of the action of either myself or my colleague, Mr. Hart, in this matter, the deputation being very plainly told that their representations would have very careful consideration, both from the Cabinet and from the Legislature."

AMERICAN CONSUL AND MRS. WAKEFIELD HOSTS AT DELIGHTFUL EVENT

Many Friends Gather on Occasion of Wedding Anniversary and Enjoy Hospitality

Seldom has there been such a representative gathering of the officials and business life of the city as that which assembled last night in celebrating the 35th wedding anniversary of Consul and Mrs. Wakefield. Sharp at nine the guests began to arrive and were received by Mrs. Wakefield assisted by her husband. The spacious living room was well filled with dancers, something like forty-five couples taking part, while seven tables of bridge were kept busy upstairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield gave their guests a true American welcome. Supper was served at midnight, coffee being poured and the ices cut by Mrs. Tremayne and Mrs. J. C. McLennan, the one in the dining room and the other in the living room. The punch bowl was kept well filled and throughout the evening the host and hostess mingled with the guests looking after every need and seeing that all enjoyed themselves. The veranda had been closed in with canvas and bunting and made into a delightful sitting out and smoking room. The Westholme orchestra provided the latest in music and when two o'clock arrived it was with the greatest regret that the guests left for their respective homes.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. McClymont, Mr. and Mrs. McCaffery, Mr. and Mrs J. C. McLennan, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Stewart, Inspector and Mrs. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Bazett-Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnsley, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stork, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Hinton and Mrs. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. H. EAGLES ARE SEEN KILLING PTARMIGAN

A number of eagles were seen after ptarmigan on the side of Marathon mountain this morning, the birds rising in a white cloud and diving for the brush in order to escape their pursuers. Eagles kill many more ptarmigan than do hunters, and the predatory birds should be exterminated.—Seward Gateway.

Adjournment until 2.30 tomorrow afternoon has been made in the case of Joseph Green vs. Harry and Pearl Shough in the County Court.
