JUNE 15 AT ANNUNCIATION

Children's fashion show to be presented by CWL

A preview of summer holiday fashions for children up to 14 years of age will be presented to city audiences June 15 when the Catholic Women's League presents its "Children's Fashion Show and Strawberry Shortcake Social."

Twelve petite models will take the spotlight in the "Holiday Fashions" to feature two-piece outfits, pop jackets topping skirts pleated all round, shirtwaists in checks and prints, accented with cummerbunds and wide sashes.

Sportswear will be focused in denim weskits, popover jackets, slims, jamaicas and pleated skirts, mixed and matched for a wide array of costumes.

Swimsuits will also take a heavy dose of pleats and prints, often checked all over.

Of welcome interest to mothers will be the easy-to-care for fabrics fashioning the children's outfits.

Mrs. Beatrice Grant is fashion show director.

General convener for the night's arrangements is retiring CWL president Mrs. William Bond.

Convening the Strawberry Shortcake will be Mrs. James Arseneau.

Show time is 8 p.m. and tickets will be available at the door.
