A surprising change in the Gordon and Anderson lineup plus a grand-slam homer by a veteran slugger last night put the hardware boys back in second place of the Prince Rupert District Baseball league as they downed a fast-starting Esquire team 10-5.

The big change was the shifting of Bill Smith from second Loser Doug Ruttan, who was

At Roosevelt Park, Esquires opened the scoring in the top of the third inning when Charlie Burtch doubled, Al Campbell walked and both were singled in by Joe Giordano. Dick Bury scored Giordano with a single. However G and A made amends in their half of the inning with seven big counters on two walks, a passed ball, singles by Bill Bailey, Jack Mitchell, John Olsen and Rey McKay and Davis' homer.

Esquire third baseman Skip Montgomery homered in the sixth to score Neil McDonald and end Esquires scoring.

Davis came back in the bottom of the sixth to lead another G and A assault with a single scoring Smith and Don Hartwig. Bailey made first on an error and scored on still another Esquire
