IS MARRIED AT FRIEND'S HOME

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, 219 Second Avenue, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening when Elizabeth Garwood, of Winbledon, England, became the bride of Norman McGlashan, son of James McGlashan, of Prince Rupert. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Wilson of First United Church.

Given in marriage by Arthur Leighton, brother-in-law of the groom, the bride wore a suit of cerise wool with white accessories with corsage of red roses. Her attendant was Miss Iris Sharp wearing a grey suit with rose accessories and corsage of pink carnations. Groomsman was Douglas Christison.

For the reception which followed, the rooms were decorated with orange blossoms and pink and white streamers. The bride's table was centred with a wedding cake flanked by silver tapers.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Wilson, and responded to by the groom. About 25 friends were present at the reception.

The bride and groom have taken residence at 1428 Sixth Avenue East. Mr. McGlashan is employed at the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co.

G. A. Green, Imperial Oil Co. agent here, was a passenger for Sandspit on this afternoon's C.P.A. flight. He went over on a brief business trip.

Passengers leaving on this afternoon's C.P.A. flight for the south were G. Jones, Mr. Beckwith, J. Smith, Miss M. Postuk, G. White, R. A. Ingrey, E. Anderson, C. E. Clark, Miss I. Knipple, Miss E.
