BISHOPS ARE IN IMPORTANT CONSULTATION

Bishop De Pencier, of New Westminster, who, with his fellow churchman and friend, Canon Jocelyn Perkins, of Westminster Abbey, London, is visiting Prince Rupert at present, staying at the residence of Bishop Du Vernet, is here on rather an important mission. He is consulting with Bishop Du Vernet on matters affecting the institution at Point Grey of a theological college, to meet the needs of the province as regards the Anglican Church within its borders. This college, Bishop De Pencier says, will cost $200,000 at least. Its board of governors is presided over by Bishop Du Vernet, and it will serve the whole province. As yet the site has not been allotted to the church by the Provincial government, but this stage is expected very shortly, after which the erection of the building will go ahead.
