PRETTY AND INTERESTING

Margaret Simundson Is Bride of Alastair Ross

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Simundson was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday evening when their daughter, Margaret Lillian, exchanged vows with Alastair Hugh Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ross of Jasper and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Killin of this city.

Entering the room on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was charming in a long white brocaded satin gown, fashioned with long sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her full length veil was held in place with a pearl-studded coronet and she carried a shower bouquet of red roses. Her only jewellry was a string of pearls, gift of the groom.

Attending the bride was Miss Eileen Foster, who chose an ice blue nylon gown with matching chapel veil and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. Attending the groom was Rupert Goodlad. Rev. R. A. Wilson performed the ceremony which took place in front of the flower-banked fireplace in the presence of members of the family. The rooms throughout were decorated with summer flowers.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Valhalla Hall when 125 guests were received by the bridal party.

Capt. Norman McKay proposed the toast to the bride and the groom suitably responded. A toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by Rupert Goodlad.

For the occasion, the bride's mother chose a white figured jersey dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of yellow gladiolli. The groom's mother wore a black and turquois dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's table was set with a cream lace cloth, silver candles and flanked with pink dahlias. The three-tiered wedding cake was made by the bride's brother, Anton Simundson, and decorated by Mrs. Andrew Thompson.

During the evening Mrs. Ross sang.

Dancing was enjoyed to the music of Andy McNaughton.

Numerous congratulatory telegrams were received and read by Rupert Goodlad.

Delicious refreshments were served to the guests by Mrs. Bruce Simundson, Mrs. Abercrombie, Miss Myrtle Taylor, Mrs. E. Grindstand, Mrs. Alfred Simundson, Mrs. Seymour and Mrs. Arnold Assman. Caterer was Mrs. Johnson.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ross and daughter Margaret of Jasper and Mrs. Arnold Assman of Prince George.

Mr. and Mrs. Alastair Ross will reside in Prince Rupert.

SONS OF NORWAY MEETING-SOCIAL

The Sons of Norway held their regular meeting last Thursday with a very good attendance of members. Business was of a routine nature. There followed a social evening.
