PRINCE RUPERT MAN AS CONSUL

CANADIAN PRESS SERVICE TELLS ABOUT WORK OF IRVING LINNELL

MARRIED WHILE HERE

Keen Student of Relations of N.S. to This Country

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 9.—(By Canadian Press).—Irving Nelson Linnell, the new United States consul-general to Canada, is almost a Canadian.

Sixteen years ago he took up a law practise in Prince Rupert, B.C. There he married a Canadian girl, Miss Lillian Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fisher, and their two children were born in the British Columbia town. It was in Prince Rupert that Mr. Linnell entered the American consular service. In 1915 he moved to Vancouver, to accept a higher post in the United States consulate there. Altogether he spent about eight years in British Columbia.

Mr. Linnell has held consular posts in five different cities, all of them British. From Vancouver he went to England, where he lived in London and Plymouth and then went to Cardiff, Wales. He returned to Washington four years ago to take charge of the Western European Division in the State Department. This division handles Canadian affairs.

SPECIALIZE ON CANADA

"I shall be only continuing the work I have been doing for years," Mr. Linnell told the Canadian Press. "But now I shall be able to specialize in what has always been of greatest interest to me—the history of relations between Canada and the United States. In the last four years I have made a very close study of this history and it gives me great pleasure to know that I shall be able to watch more closely the working out of the problems common to our two countries and perhaps to assist in the solution of our problems, too. With the establishment of the direct diplomatic connection between our countries, the consulate-general will be occupied more with business affairs and less with diplomatic, but I hope I shall be able to make practical use of my Canadian experience and my knowledge of Canadian affairs."

SUCCESSFUL TREATY

One of the most interesting incidents in North American history, Mr. Linnell thought, was the negotiation of the Halibut Treaty between Canada and the United States. It had proved one of the most successful treaties of modern times, he said, and he believed it would be even more successful in the future.

Mr. Linnell said the happiest and most interesting of his days were spent in British Columbia. He looked forward with keen relish to the prospect of visiting Vancouver and Prince Rupert again when his work would permit. Mr. Linnell goes to Ottawa about July 1, when the veteran Col. John G. Foster, consul-general for the United States there for nearly 25 years, retires. One of the posts Mr. Linnell will leave vacant here is that of lecturer on consular practice at the Georgetown University.

SCOPE OF WORK

His staff in Ottawa will be unchanged by the establishment of the direct diplomatic connection through Hon. William Phillips. The consular service is separate and takes care of such matters as immigration, passports, witnessing of international business transactions, and so on. Mr. Linnell will occupy a separate office from the United States minister, operating as a branch of the ministry. His staff will be the same as that which has operated in Ottawa for many years, namely, the consul-general, a vice-consul of career two non-career vice-consuls and four clerks. They will continue to administer the Ontario consular district, the largest in Canada, direct. This means that any adjustment of the quota control for British Canadians working in the United States would come under Mr. Linnell direct. Asked if he anticipated any trouble from that quarter, the new consul-general good-humoredly pleaded ignorance, having heard nothing officially of the matter.

MEETING ON CELEBRATION

ARRANGEMENTS FOR VISIT OF KETCHIKAN BASEBALL TEAM CHIEF MATTER OF DISCUSSION LAST NIGHT

Arrangements for the visit of the Ketchikan baseball team and party of fans here during the July 1 festivities formed the chief topic for consideration at the meeting in the City Hall last night of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation celebration executive committee. There was a lengthy letter from L. H. Kubley, manager of the Ketchikan ball team, which pointed out that, owing to Ketchikan having its own celebration on July 4, it would be almost impossible for the team to come here for games on July 1 and 2. It was suggested that it would be more suitable if the games could be arranged for the evening of June 30 and, possibly, the afternoon of July 1. This would permit of the Ketchikanites coming down aboard the Princess Charlotte on June 29 and returning on July 1 aboard the Princess Alice which could possibly be held until 6 o'clock that evening, if some other boat were not obtained. This would make it possible for a large crowd of Ketchikan people making the trip in addition to the delegation of Rotarians forty strong, with their wives, which was coming down anyway. The letter referred to the fact that Ketchikan was desirous of having the Prince Rupert ball team over for the celebration on July 3 and 4.

The local committee decided to enlist the influence of the Mayor, Rotary Club, United States consul and possibly others in having the Princess Alice held over to accommodate the plan suggested by Ketchikan. Failing that, an effort may be made to have some other line furnish a boat to take the visitors home.

The meeting decided to have the $100 prize offered by Hon. T. D. Pattullo presented for the tug-of-war in the way of cash rather than a prize.

R. V. G. LePine, chairman of the floats committee, reported that seven floats had been promised for the parade from service and fraternal organizations. This was without commercial or taxi concerns.

Decision in the matter of concessions was deferred.

SO SHORT OF BREATH SHE COULD HARDLY DO HER HOUSEWORK

Mrs. Nelson Moore, Milford, Ont., writes:—"I had heart and nerve trouble, and became so short of breath I could hardly do my housework, and was so nervous every little sound I heard felt like a shock to me.

A friend of mine recommended

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

so highly I got a box of them and they did me so much good I got the second box, and now I am feeling like a different woman."

Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all druggists or dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
