SHORT SPORT

Dick Irvin, veteran hockey player and former coach of the Chicago Black Hawks, signed 16 years ago to coach the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League. Irvin remained with Toronto until 1940 when he went to Montreal Canadiens where he is now coaching.

Dr. James A. Naismith, Canadian-born inventor of basketball, died eight years ago at Lawrence, Kansas, at the age of 78. He was a professor emeritus of physical education at Kansas University.

BURNS WALK OFF WITH "A" LEAGUE 5-PIN HONORS

Burns walked off with just about everything distinctive in this week's Men's "A" five pin session by cleaning up all the honors, individual and collective. Notable among their achievements was the fact that they bowled the highest team scores, both for a single game, in which they rolled up 1,185, and for three games with a score of 3,384.

The provisioners also defeated Revellers 3 games to 0, a feat that was no less outstanding because Brownwoods also blanketed Morgans and Reddy Kilowatts submerged North Star. Anyway, Burns are now perched solidly at the top of the league, with Brownwoods and Kilowatts in second and third places respectively.

Burns also showed up to advantage in the individual scoring. J. Pinniger, a Burns player, bowled the highest single game score of the evening—350, and then proceeded to add up the highest three game total—824 at the end of the session.

Burns 3, Revellers 0.
Brownwoods 3, Morgans 0.
Kilowatts 3, North Star 0.
Mansons 2, Continentals 1.
Malkins 2, McMeekins 1.
Ambassadors 2, Home Oil 1.

SUGGESTS HOOP COACH

Editor, Daily News:

I have had the privilege during the last ten days of viewing your Civic Centre establishment and the activities therein. I should like to congratulate the community through you on having such a grand institution. I also was fortunate to see your major winter sport—basketball—in operation on two separate occasions and noted many fine athletes and the large enthusiastic group of spectators.

Judging from the playing exhibitions, do you not think it would be wise to hire a full time basketball coach? Granted you have in town a professional man, who has probably forgotten more basketball than many of us ever hope to know, but I imagine he is more devoted to his profession than a continuous basketball prgram. Also there is your High School Principal but he should be rather preoccupied with his own athletic programs.

The expense involved in coaching would be more than covered, by the improved type of play, spectator appeal plus the publicity which could be forthcoming. Who has not heard of the Tulsa Oilers, Wichita Brownies and Edmonton Grads? This could be for Prince Rupert too with the community behind the major winter pastime.
