FUGUTIVES FROM RUMANIAN TREASON TRIAL—Constantin Visoianu, left, former prime minister of Romania, and Grigore Nicolescu-Buzesti, ex-foreign minister of that country, are shown as they arrived in New York. Both are being tried in "absentia" on treason charges in Bucharest, where it was revealed at the trial of other accused Romanians that the two statesmen were smuggled out of the country by American airplanes that landed secretly in Romania. Among those accused in the Bucharest trial is Juliu Maniu, one of Romania's most popuular statesmen before the pro-Communist regime.

Mosley Gets Busy Again

Proposes African-European Link to Offset Soviet Barbarism

LONDON (AP)—Sir Oswald Mosley, former leader of the British Union of Fascists, will probably announce next week his decision on the formation of a new "union movement" to link South Africa and Europe which he intimated to his supporters in his first post-war public speech a week ago.

Since his return to public life, when he said it would take him a fortnight to decide whether to form a new political group, Mosley is understood to have discussed the move at secret conferences with his closest colleagues.

Mosley said that his politics had advanced "as far beyond both the Fascism and democracy of 1939 as the jet-propelled airplane beyond the design of the Nineteenth Century steam engine."

He repeatedly emphasized that the union of Europe with the development of Africa to help save the world "from barbarians of Soviet Russia" was the main practical idea of his new doctrine.

Still Full of Life and Possibilities, Declares Mr. Ilsley

LAKE SUCCESS (AP)—Minister of Justice J. L. Ilsley said today that the present United Nations session shows the organization has "plenty of vitality" and there are no signs of decay or slow or rapid death.

Appraising the near-ending session for the Canadian Press, the head of the Canadian delegation said "feeling between delegates improved as the meetings went on."

Mr. Ilsley expressed his views as members of the United Nations were still deadlocked on details of Palestine partition.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

FALL DINNERS FEATURE FOWL—MORE SUBSTANTIAL MEALS NOW

When the weather turns cool, the menu-planner thinks more of the main course of more substantial meals.

Roast turkey or chicken are always worth a cheer from the family but a good chicken pie or pot pie is enjoyed with equal satisfaction and is almost an economy meal if made with fowl and if it has plenty of rich gravy.

Small fowl, weighing from 3 to 3½ pounds are plentiful just now and yield as much meat in proportion to their size as the bigger ones of 5 to 6 pounds. As an added attraction the smaller birds have a slightly higher percentage of white meat for those who prefer it.

The small fowl is an excellent buy for the family of two or three and when the group is larger two of these small birds may be better than one of the larger size.

Fowl require long slow cooking in moist heat in order to make them completely tender. Modern methods of cooking include the use of pressure saucepans and where time is a consideration cut up fowl may be cooked in 25 to 30 minutes instead of the usual 2 to 3 hours of simmering.

Fowl is sometimes roasted by a combination of steaming and baking. In this case the stuffed bird is placed in a covered pan with a small amount of water and slowly cooked until tender. To brown the bird, during the last half hour the cover is removed.

Fricasseed Chicken With Sour Cream

1 fowl (3½ to 4 lbs.) cut into serving portions
3 tablespoons vinegar
½ cup flour
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup fat
⅓ cup chopped onion
¼ cup chopped parsley or celery leaves
1½ cup sour cream

Rub fowl with vinegar and roll in mixture of flour, salt and pepper. Melt fat and brown meat on all sides in hot fat. Place browned chicken in large casserole, add onions, parsley or celery leaves and cover with sour cream. Cook covered in a moderately slow oven, 325 degrees F., until tender, 2½ to 3 hours. Six servings.

Chicken Johnny Cake

2 tablespoons cnicken fat or other fat
2 cups diced cooked chicken
¾ cup corn meal
1¼ cups sifted pastry flour
1 tablespoon sugar
½ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
2 teaspoon celery seed or celery salt
1 beaten egg
¾ cup milk
1 tablespoon minced parsley
¼ cup melted chicken fat or other fat

Melt the two tablespoons fat in a 7 x 11 inch baking dish. Spread the chicken evenly over the bottom of this pan. Sift dry ingredients into bowl. Add egg, milk and parsley, stirring lightly; quickly fold in the ¼ cup melted fat. Pour batter over chicken, spreading evenly. Bake in a very hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 20 to 25 minutes. Unmold, inverted on platter, or serve from baking dish. Garnish with parsley and pimiento. Serve immediately with chicken or giblet gravy or seasoned cream sauce made with part chicken stock.

WOMEN ABLE TO CONTROL PRICES

Calls on Consumers, Retailers, Wholesalers, Growers to Co-operate

TORONTO (AP)—Mrs. R. J. Marshall, president of the Canadian Association of Consumers, says that control of the current price flurry in home-grown fresh fruits and vegetables rests in the hands of women shoppers themselves.

Prices on many items jumped after imports from the United States were restricted last week.

Mrs. Marshall calls on consumers, retailers, wholesalers and grocers to join in a voluntary co-operative effort to halt unwarranted price rises and calls on housewives not to buy if prices are unduly increased.

PAY LAND IN CROPS

OTTAWA (CP) — Veterans living in the spring wheat area of the prairie provinces settled as full-time farmers under the Veterans' Land Act will have the option of paying for their farms on the basis of crop yield under a new order-in-council announced today by Veterans' Minister Ian Mackenzie.

Under the new arrangement the veteran may-elect to pay the V.L.A. director half of his crop "in excess of six bushels per acre per year" instead of the usual cash payments. Should the crop exceed eighteen bushels per acre, the veteran would have the right to keep the payments to a maximum of six bushels per acre but also may exceed this amount if the crop is sufficiently good.

R.C.M.P. VETERAN DIES IN ALBERTA

EDMONTON — In Lethbridge last week Patrick Egan, old time member of the R.C.M.P., and particularly well known in the north during the gold rush days, passed away. He was noted for the part he took in apprehending a murderer named Brophy. This is one of the outstanding stories of Canadian police records. Paddy Egan never missed a sour dough convention, until the state of his health prevented long journeys. A sister in Halifax died there four years ago.

DON'T STARTLE PEOPLE

Doctors say the bursting of an inflated paper bag raises the average person's brain pressure four times higher than morphine or glycerine, two of the world's most powerful drugs.
