Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

FORMER LOCAL PASTOR CONDEMNS NEW NOVEL

Prof. F. W. Kerr Declares Sinclair Lewis' Book Packed With Indecencies

"Sinclair Lewis' latest novel is the most violent attack launched against the church in this generation," stated Prof. F. W. Kerr, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Prince Rupert, from the pulpit of Knox United Church in Winnipeg recently.

"The book is so packed with indecencies," the speaker said, "that after laying it down one felt as physically unclean as one felt when passing through the scarlet fever ward of a hospital. The book was designed, Prof. Kerr stated, to besmirch the characters of ministers and to unsettle the faith of young people. This made it one of the most vicious novels ever printed. The purpose of the book was to lay hold of the very pillars of religion and level the structure to the dust, he said.

"The book is devoted exclusively to religion, all its characters are ministers, evengelists or bishops, and, without exception they are more depraved than the denizens of Hollywood," Prof. Kerr stated.

"The world is dividing into two camps," the preacher stated. "On one hand, those who are embittered against all religion, and on the other hand, the Christian forces which are drawing together in a new intensity of devotion and loyalty, while the embittered ones are becoming more aggressive, sacriligious and insolent than ever before.

"These attacks on the church," he said, "represent an irritation that such a person as Christ should exist, because He is a standing rubuke to the faithless lives of the instigators.

The Little Things

¶AWAY back in the year 1757, in his maxims prefixed to Poor Richard's Almanac, Benjamin Franklin said: "For want of a nail, the shoe was lost; for want of a shoe, the horse was lost; and for want of a horse, the rider was lost." So you see the importance of a little think like a horse-shoe nail!

¶IF you are disposed to neglect the smaller advertisements in this paper, you are making a mistake. You are missing money-saving opportunities. You are missing important information about something that some day you are going to buy. You are throwing away your road-map and following your nose.

¶THE big stores of today were little stores years ago. They used advertising space judiciously and became large. At first, their announcements were smaller than they are today. But those small advertisements told about real values, real savings for their customers.

¶IN other words, the size of an dvertisement is no indication of its importance to you. The message is the thing. Some of the most important merchandise news is often printed in tiny type. Even in the largest advertisements you will find small type. Read the small type as well as the big black type. Read the little type as well as the big black type. Read the little advertisements as well as the large ones. It pays.

ADVERTISEMENTS COME IN ALL SIZES—BUT THE SMALLEST ONE MAY CARRY THE BIGEST NEWS FOR YOU.
