WHY BE EMBARRASSED BY PERSPIRATION ODOUR

It's so easy to avoid this obnoxious social error. Simply use Lifebuoy, the superb toilet soap, for face, hands and bath.

Let Lifebuoy's creamy, antiseptic lather neutralize the one to two pints of moisture which the human body expels daily through the pores.

When you use Lifebuoy you can be sure of never giving offence from bath to bath.

TERMINALS GET THE ODD GOAL

WIN OVER REGIMENT AT FOOTBALL LAST NIGHT BY SMALL MARGIN

Regiment went down to defeat before the Terminals in the City League last evening when they lost by the odd goal in five.

Terminals had Loblick in goal and Donald at back. Regiment had Youngman in goal and generally had to rearrange their line-up as pressure of work prevented Ross, Corbett, Bye and George from playing.

Terminals had all the better of the play in the first half but Youngman in goal saved well and Kelsey and Norrington at back were splendid. At length from a return Howe put the Terminals one goal up. Baptie was in great form and gave his forwards many chances but they were not used to advantage. Loblick failed to clear a simple shot and Nelson equalized. Baptie went close with a free kick.

Playing down hill Terminals were on the aggressive in the second half. Youngman saved repeatedly but Howe added a second goal. Warren was clean through but Youngman saved at point blank range. Dickens missed an open goal. Norrington and Kelsey defended finely but Dickens gave Youngman no chance when he got a third for Terminals. Baptie and Tinker tried to carry the attack into the Terminal territory but Skinner and Donald were safe. Currie was supplying his forwards with many chances but from a break away Alf. Hodgkinson shot and Loblick let the ball between his legs for a second goal for the Regiment. Full time found the Terminals winners 3-2.

Regiment—Youngman; Kelsey, Norrington; Redpath, Baptie, Tinker; F. Hodgkinson, Wilson, Nelson, A. Hodgkinson, Davis.

Terminals—Loblick; Skinner, Donald, Hill, Currie, Howe; Harrison, Strachan, Dickens, Warren, Chenoski.

Geo. Russell refereed and A. Clapperton and J. Currie Jr. were linesmen.

is here again, with its call to the Great Outdoors. In the course of the next few weeks, thousands of people will forsake the cities to seek rest and recreation by lake and stream and in the depths of the cool, green Forests.

Remember!

This is the month of July when the Fire Hazard is at its height. Be rigidly careful with Fire. Get your camp fire permit; have it always with you and follow its simple instructions. The consciousness of doing your part to Protect the Forests will add materially to your enjoyment of them.
