Joy Mitchell undefeated

Kitimat rink sets pace in bonspiel

By DICK AYRES
Editor of The Daily News

The Joy Mitchell rink of Kitimat downed the Cathy Kerr quartette 11-6 to remain undefeated and to enter the semi-finals of primary A Event of the Prince Rupert Women's Curling club's Eighth Annual Jubilee bonspiel last night.

The victory gave the Mitchell rink its sixth win, three in each of the two primaries, without a loss and handed the Kerr squad its first defeat in six games.

Already in the semi-finals of A Event last night were the Myrtle Lewis rink which defeated Olga Newton 7-4 and the Betty Dahl foursome which downed the Paul rink 16-3.

In B Event, the Mitchell team meets the Kerr rink again in the semi-finals of B Event. Also in the semis of B Event are Alice Ritchie and Gwen Eby.

Although the spiel started at 8 p.m. Friday the bonspiel was officially opened at 3 p.m. Saturday when Mayor P. J. Lester threw the first rock before a large crowd of spectators. Curling club president Jan Waldbauer, held the broom. Mrs. Waldbauer and Ruby Merrison, bonspiel chairman, welcomed outside rinks and local curlers.

Jack Laurie was master of ceremonies for the opening which featured a parade around the rink headed by the Irish Fusiliers pipe band under the direction of Lieut. J. C. Ewart.

Visiting rinks, besides the victorious Mitchell crew from Kitimat are skipped by Joanne Hennie also from the smelter city; Verna Heggie from Smithers; Helen Dempster, Jean Olson and Elsie Anderson all from Terrace.

Saturday night the curlers and their men folk took time off for the annual women's bonspiel party at the Armoury.

The entertainment had everything for the men, and the women—can can girls, curling fashions and a dig at the men to let them know that their wives know what's in their minds when they're away at an outside bonspiel.

The evening got off to a slow start, as the party had to compete with the broadcast of the Prince Rupert-Vancouver College basketball game from Vancouver.

However, by 10:25 p.m. Master of Ceremonies Sammy Simpson managed to break the sound barrier of portable radios and general yacketty-yak, to get the big crowd in a festive mood with a curling sing song led by Gordy Bateman.

Show stopper was a racy can-can number performed by a bevy of eight cuties the like of which Prince Rupert hasn't seen before and is not likely to see again. High-kicking and flaunting themselves in gay abandon were Fifi Lewis, Roberta Eby, Brigette Anderson, Ruby Merrison, Phyl Peterson, Tona Armstrong, Vivian Kellough and Simone Lemire. The number proved so popular that the "girls" were recalled for an encore which proved just as devastating as the original number.

Also getting the laughs was a fashion number featuring curling styles over the past 50 years ranging from a bare-kneed gal in kilts to the slinky curlers of today in their "stretchies."

Providing the ditty were Jan Waldbauer, Cathy Kerr, Mabel Shier and Olga Newton, while models were Sandra Theobald, Ben Breaks, Marg Montgomery, Pat Anderson and Jessie Collins.

Four "men" at the outside bonspiel and the gals they just happened to meet were Jan Waldbauer, Mabel Shier, Olga Newton, Cathy Kerr, Jean Billing, Betty Dahl, Myrtle Lewis and Alma Whatman.

A buffet supper and dancing concluded the evening and the gals resumed back to curling at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

A 7-3 Sports Shop lead at the end of the second period proved too great for Savoy, missing most of their regular players, to overcome.
