ODDFELLOWS AND REBEKAHS HELD CHRISTMAS TREE

The Christmas tree entertainment held by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs in the Metropole Hall yesterday evening was a distinct success. The musical program carried out by the children consisting of songs, recitations, pianoforte and instrumental solos was much appreciated by the large gathering of relatives and friends present. Mrs. Smoke, Noble Grand of the Rebekah lodge, occupied the chair and the proceedings opened with the singing of "O Canada." The lengthy program included the following numbers:

Vocal solos by Miss Beulah McKinley; pianoforte solos by Misses Connie Morgan, Irene Morrison, Beulah McKinley, Enyd Morris, and Aleita McKinley; recitations by Sonny Bemer, Miss Edna Ireland, Jimmy Irvine, Miss Rose Cox, Miss Jean McLean, Miss Hazel Smith, Earl Eby, Miss Edna McLean, Miss Eva Morris, Floyd Eby, Miss Muriel Eby and Willie Balsdon; pianoforte duet by the Misses Connie Morgan and Bea Berner; mandoline solo by Garfield McKinley and a pianoforte solo by Miss Edna Morris. Delectable refreshments were served during the evening.

The committee responsible for the success of the entertainment included Mrs. S. V. Cox, Mrs. J. Boddie and Mrs. Smith. The refreshment committee comprised Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Priest, Mrs. Mayon and Mrs. McKechnie.

PRINCE GEORGE

The local branch of the G.W.V.A. at a general meeting held on December 15 unanimously decided to re-appoint all the present officers for a further term of six months.

Ruth Hornsby arrived home on Thursday morning from Vancouver on her first vacation since entering the University in that city.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Art Gagne on December 10 at the Ottawa Maternity Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Allan returned to Prince George recently following an extended visit to points of interest in England.

There are fewer names on the municipal voters' list for next year than for 1924, the total enrollment being 560. Ward one loses 23 names from the list, Ward two loses 38, and Ward three is short 45. The shrinking comes in the failure of householders and licence holders to qualify in view of the prospects of election by acclamation.

George Pappas and Kathleen Milous were married in St. Michael's church on Monday evening last by Rev. S. Pollinger, being supported by Mrs. T. Pappas and George Kalias. Following the ceremony a company of friends entertained at supper at the residence of Mrs. T. Pappas. The bride arrived in the city a few days before the ceremony, coming direct from Corinth, Greece, to make her home in Prince George.

Dr. E. J. Lyon returned to the city on Saturday last following an extended trip to Eastern Canadian and United States points, including a couple of weeks at the Mayo hospitals in Rochester, Minn. While he was in Toronto his mother underwent an operation. The surgeon in attendance pronounced the patient in a satisfactory condition and Dr. Lyon commenced his homeward trip. He learned several days later that pneumonia had developed and that his mother had passed away on December 7.

The work has been shut down on the government road fill across the lake.

Miss F. Warne of Vancouver is visiting here for the holidays. She is the guest of Mrs. D. M. Gerow.

At Danskin on Wednesday last a dance and Christmas tree entertainment was given at which everyone present had a most enjoyable time.

C. R. O'Hara arrived yesterday from Giscome for the holiday season.

Mrs. Taylor Jensen left last week for a visit to the coast near Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Wm. Bickle made a trip to Smithers last week.

W. J. Godwin arrived last Thursday from Pennant, Sask., via Vancouver and Prince Rupert. He will visit here with his brother for several weeks.

Cutting down the police force as a means to further economy has brought L. Peterson's head under the administration axe and he was retired off the force on December 145.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gerow on December 15.

Miss Betty Prosser, arrived home last Thursday from Prince Rupert for the holidays.

Constable Carr is making a trip to the south country in search of a person who, it is alleged, has stolen $600 worth of furs, the property of Frank R. Keefe of Francois Lake.

C. Cope of Bickle left on Thursday morning's train for a visit to his parental home in the Okanagan. Before returning to this district he may make a business visit to England. He took out number of fine specimens of fossilized rock found in the vicinity of Bickle.

Miss McDairmid left on Thursday morning for Salmon Arm where she will spend the Christmas holidays.

HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man the other day "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought then if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it." Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Cowan & Latta's Fourth St., from our wide range at moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. Phone 234.
