Never a Milk Shortage

WITH Carnation on the pantry shelf there is never a shortage of double-rich, absolutely pure milk for every milk use. For Carnation can be bought a month's supply at a time—it keeps indefinitely. It even keeps several days after the tin is opened, so that there is no waste.

Because Carnation is just pure, fresh milk evaporated to double richness and kept safe by sterilization, it meets every need for milk or cream. Undiluted, it takes the place of cream at one-third cream cost. Diluted it gives superior results in all cooking. It is the most completely useful milk you can buy. Order several tins or a case of 48 tins from your grocer.

CARNATION JELLIED RICE—One cup Carnation Milk diluted with 1 cup water, 3 level teaspoons granulated gelatin, ¼ cup rice cooked in milk till tender, ½ cup sugar, ¼ cup cream beaten stiff, fruit to taste. Soak gelatin in a little of milk till tender. Add rest of milk boiling hot, rice and sugar. When cool fold in cream and chill. Unmould and serve with any fruit and heavy cream. Lemon rind makes a nice flavoring for the pudding.

LARGE GANG OF MEN WORKING

Gravel Being Brought From Terrace to Ballast Railway Line at This End

There is quite a large gang of men working on the railway just now at this end. A gang of 70 or 80 men is engaged in ballasting and the steam shovel supplying the gravel is operating at Terrace. This work is just part of the periodic overhaul which the line receives.

MEMORIAL LIBRARY WAS SUGGESTED AT MEETING LAST NIGHT

At the meeting of the Library Board last night the need of a new building in the near future was mentioned and it was suggested that possibly the Cenotaph Committee would like to change their original plans and erect a memorial library which would be quite in keeping with the aims and ideals of those who fell during the war or who otherwise made sacrifices for the cause. It was stated that while some of the returned soldiers were opposed to anything but a cenotaph, public opinion was rather behind the idea of spending the money on something of lasting benefit to the living as being more in accord with what would be the wishes of those who had gone were they able to express themselves.

NORMA SHEARER'S NEWEST, "THE LATEST FROM PARIS"

Big Production Shows Beautiful Norma Shearer in Unique Portrayal of "All's Fair in Love and Business"

Norma Shearer has brought to the screen one of the best pieces of celluloid entertainment of the comedy-drama type of years in her newest starring production, "The Latest From Paris," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presentation which opens tonight at the Capitol Theatre.

As a whole, the story portrayed upon the screen may be classified as unique, though there is nothing fantastic about it. Its quality of uniqueness comes from the simple fact that nobody else had ever thought of starring a girl in the role of a traveling saleswoman.

The role opens a vast field of almost unlimited opportunities—a woman matching her wits against other knights of the grip and taking advantage of her own feminine charms only after her rivals have declared "everything fair in love and business."

Deals With Clothing Trade

The story has a bit of the essence of Potash and Perlmutter without in any way infringing on that series. There are two Jewish partners in the wholesale coat and suit firm of Blogg and Littauer, as unalike as day and night, always quarreling, always differing as to business methods—and always friends.

Norma travels for them, is their prize representative and even sells Diana models, the prize flop of the year in women's apparel.

The story was written by A. P. Younger and capably directed by Sam Wood. Miss Shearer's entire cast gives her admirable support.

RECEPTION FOR BISHOP RIX AT TERRACE MONDAY

TERRACE, April 10.—Bishop Rix of Caledonia left on Tuesday for Prince Rupert after spending the week-end in Terrace. While here he delivered eloquent and impressive sermons at both morning and evening services on Sunday.

This being his first visit to the parish since his elevation to the bishopric, a reception in his honor was held at the rectory on Monday evening. A great many were present. During the evening musical selections were rendered by Rev. G. W. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dyson and Dr. Brummitt. A. Attree gave a reading. Following refreshments, which were in charge of the Women's Auxiliary, the bishop gave a brief address in which he recalled amusing incidents in connection with his first visit to Terrace nearly 12 years ago at the time he delivered the address on "Our Flag" in connection with Red Cros activities. He also paid special tribute to the good work done throughout the district by Canon and Mrs. Marsh and Rev. and Mrs. Robinson.
