Billiard competition plans for the forthcoming winter season will be started at a meeting of the Prince Rupert Billiard League which is called for next Monday evening. Attention is now being turned towards indoor sport for the next few months and it is expected there will be the usual enthusiasm for billiards. Some idea of the form the competitions are to take this winter will likely be obtained at this meeting. The Bulger & Cameron cup, significant of city billiard team championship, is now held by the Great War Veterans who won the series last winter. There were six teams then and it is expected there will be fully as many this year.

Following the recent opening of the geese and duck season, sportsmen of Alice Arm and Anyox spent a busy week, and some good bags were secured. These will, however increase after the sportsmen have obtained a little more practice. The Kitsault flats is the favorite hunting ground for Alice Arm, while the Anyox gunners range a number of well known haunts in the vicinity of the smelter town.

USE BOW AND ARROW CALIFORNIA HUNTING

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25. — Southern California hunters are facing the prospect of reverting to primitive methods of killing deer this season, as the result of a Los Angeles county emergency ordinance, adopted to prevent forest fires, which prohibits the discharge of firearms in areas outside of incorporated cities. Other counties are considering similar legislation.

Some hunters have announced their intention of using bow and arrow, while others favor bowie knives or boomerangs.

SAW FIRST TRAIN

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The postman of the island of St. Kilda in the Hebrides has just visited Fleetwood where, for the first time, he saw a railway train, an automobile, a trolley car and a moving picture show. He was amazed at all these wonders, but after a few days was not sorry to return to St. Kilda.

HIKES ACROSS COUNTRY

LIVINGSTON, Mont., Sept. 25. —The youngest cross-country hiker ever seen in this part of the country, Betty Rose, aged 6, arrived here with her mother, Mrs. Blanche Rose, of Pittsburg, Pa. They were en route to the Pacific Coast by the way of Yellowstone Park.

PARTY RETURNS FROM A HUNTING TRIP IN WHICH WAS ACCIDENT

George D. Tite, Teddy Tite, George Frizzell and Douglas Frizzell returned to the city on last night's train from a grouse hunting trip to Woodcock. All report full bags . The trip was marred by an accident sustained by Douglas Frizzell when his shotgun, accidentally going off, shot off half of his right thumb. Bullets entering the hand were removed at the Hazelton Hospital by Dr. Wrinch. Douglas was standing under a tree and his gun, being wet, slipped, the impact of the stock causing it to go off, his thumb being over the mouth of the barrel.
